

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of Elohim in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from Yahweh only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Mosheh, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Mosheh, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? (John 5:39—47)

PUTTING ON YAHSHUA

We are happy to report the baptism of five brethren in the month of January. We were blessed to travel to Dallas on Sabbath the 18th where we met with brethren under the guidance of Brother Ezra Gillamore. Arrangements were made for the baptism of four brethren, three of them having been in prison.

Luis Cabrera, Carlos Ser-rato, and two brothers, Joe and Lorenzo Medel were baptized after services. We were so happy to not only meet these four new brethren, but the congregation that is meeting in southeast Dallas.

David Kloehn (already baptized) and John Beck-with came all the way from Wisconsin to meet with us and discuss the es-tablishment of Yahweh's Vineyard of Refuge, arriv-ing on the 19th. We trav-eled to Dallas to speak with Luis Cabrera on the 21st concerning YVR.

We observed the Sabbath at the home of Judy Pyle. Later in the evening as we had returned, Dave, John, and I were discussing the truths concerning Yahshua whereupon John deter-mined to be baptized. He was baptized on the 22nd in Texarkana as they em-barked on their trip home.

Paul reveals that baptism has to do with being clothed with Yahshua. May these brethren wear Him in the wisdom of the Ruach HaQodesh (Holy Spirit)! HalleluYah!!!!

A STUDY INTO THE BOOK OF DANIEL

DANIEL CHAPTER 4

As this chapter unfolds, we hope that you are able to grasp the lessons that are revealed herein. Daniel continues to reveal so many important things.

Da 4:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high Elahh hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

COMMENT: Again, Nebuchadnezzar has been given a dream that is from Yahweh, which none can decipher no matter how skilled and learned they are in the knowledge of this world, or in idolatrous paganism.

Da 4:8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my Elahi, and in whom is the spirit of the holy Elahin: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy Elahin is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy Elahin is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My master, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

COMMENT: It is the Spirit of the holy Elohim that is able to interpret the dream of which Daniel has been given his portion. He is astonished at the revelation of this dream and, in actuality, doesn't desire to reveal the dream to Nebuchadnezzar. But he must do so at the king's request.

We must keep in mind that Nebuchadnezzar is the king of Babylon (confusion). He has been given a great kingdom and dominion over the earth. But he only has the spirit of man, and not the spirit of Yahweh. Nebuchadnezzar would be a type of the first Adam to whom was given dominion over the earth, and who was placed in the Garden of Eden to dress and keep it.

Adam and his bride Eve took of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil which introduced into them its nature rather than the nature of Elohim. They were made in the image of Elohim, but their minds, their hearts, their spirits became corrupted through the forbidden fruit.

Adam and Eve became confused even to the point of covering their nakedness with fig leaves. Fig leaves would be highly irritating and wouldn't endure for long at all as the leaves quickly wilt, turn brown, become desiccated, and very brittle.

But they knew that they had done wrong and needed to be covered. The fig leaf coverings were a type of the false religions that men would dream up to cover their sins, their shortcomings so they could eventually enter into the heavenly realm and eternal life. Man deceives himself through his own false religions.

We are shown a view of what is going to happen in the very near future. Yahshua is presented with a scroll that is sealed with seven seals (Rev. 5). No man has the power to strip the seals but the Lamb Who is the Lion of the tribe of Judah (Rev. 5:4-5).

Then He opens the sixth seal, "And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Why are they so distraught? Because the kings and leaders of the earth have worked in conjunction with the Babylonian harlot to cause themselves and the inhabitants of the earth to commit fornication (Rev. 17;1-5; 18:1-3). They, being the descendants of Adam and Eve, have caused all to be covered with the unacceptable covering of FIG LEAVES!

Notice that they say to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb." Mountains are parables, types of kingdoms. Remember the stone that becomes a great mountain in chapter two, which fills the earth? This is speaking of the kingdom of heaven that will be established through Yahshua's appearance.

Rocks are a type of Elohim, "He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: an Elohim of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he....; How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and Yahweh had shut them up? For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges," Dt. 32:4, 30-31.

Mithras was the sun god of Persia and eventually Rome. He was equivalent to the Bel of Babylon. He was worshipped in caves and dens. He was the savior god of the nations, kingdoms (mountains). When men see Yahweh on His throne and Yahshua, the Lamb beside Him, they will know that the gig is up! Atheism, and evolution will vanish like a puff of smoke because He that has been hidden from their eyes and denied will be seen. But, as Adam and Eve, they will seek to run and hide, yes, physically, but also spiritually. They will seek to trust in their false gods to deliver them, and the power of the great end-time Babylonian kingdom.

Aren't they already talking of ETs (Extra Terrestrials)? Yahweh and Yahshua are the true ETs because they are not of this world. But the kingdoms of this earth and her leaders are seeking to prepare to make war against any Extra Terrestrials that might appear.

Nebuchadnezzar, as a great king over the earth, is a type of Adam. Both are given dominion that comes to confusion and corruption.

Da. 4:23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my master the king:

25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquility.

COMMENT: Nebuchadnezzar is given advice that will continue the length of his kingdom and his tranquility, just as Adam was given the advice on how to lengthen his own tranquility.

Chapter four is an interim chapter to the vision that is given to Daniel in chapter seven. Nebuchadnezzar is given a beast's heart and is assigned to dwell with the beasts of the field, the beasts of the earth for seven times. There are four beasts revealed in chapter seven which introduces a beastly nature of the kingdoms of the gentiles. It is the same kingdoms, but chapter two is given to reveal the history of the reign of idolatry, while chapter seven is given to reveal the beastly natures of the kingdoms.

The stump is banded with brass/copper and iron. The final two world ruling kingdoms were to be brass/copper and iron as we discovered in chapter two. We are living in the time that the whole world is shut up to true understanding because of the nature of the brass/copper and iron.

We must keep in mind that this dream is given to teach that it is Yahweh Who is the Most High that rules in or over the kingdom of men and gives it to whomsoever He will.

Da. 4:28 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

COMMENT: Nebuchadnezzar has already forgotten the dream and its consequences attributing to himself the greatness of the kingdom of Babylon that he had obtained. This is a key to understanding the mistakes of all rulers, kings, and leaders. They tend to attribute their position, greatness, power, wealth, etc. to themselves, and not the Most High Elohim, Yahweh. Their subjects and followers are forced to agree with them.

It is also interesting to note the statement, "...till his hairs were grown like eagle's feathers, and his nails like bird's claws." The inheritors of the Babylonian kingdom that is, the European kingdoms, which includes Russia, all utilize eagles, generally two headed eagles, on their banners, and, of course, so does America. But we must remember that the headquarters of the nations has always been located in the mid-east and Europe.

Da. 4:34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

COMMENT: Yahweh originally utilized seven days, six days of recreation, and a seventh day for rest to represent the seven thousand year plan that He has initiated, as Peter writes, "But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with Yahweh as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day," 2 Pet. 3:8.

A time can represent a year, as most scholars believe that the seven times were seven years that Nebuchadnezzar was in his madness. Since Nebuchadnezzar is standing in the place of our forefather Adam, this dream is announcing that the Gentile nations and peoples would possess minds of beasts and madness for that seven thousand years. The fact of the matter is that the overall general populace of non-Hebrews (Gentiles) are not resurrected until the seventh millennium is over with. This is revealed in the book of Revelation, "And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from Yahweh out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before Yahweh; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire," Rev. 20:7-15.

What is really being said here? We already know that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of Elohim. The works of sin earn the penalty of death, therefore, we all stand before the judgment seat of Yahweh being judged guilty of death unless we have been blessed to be called and chosen to come under the atoning blood of Yahshua the Messiah.

But notice that after the seven times, Nebuchadnezzar's understanding returned to him. Isaiah also makes some very interesting statements concerning this, "And in this mountain shall Yahweh of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death in victory; and Adonai Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for Yahweh hath spoken it," Isa. 25:6-8.

Yahweh has purposely blinded

the nations! He has spread a veil over the nations so that they can't see nor truly know Him! But in this resurrection at the end of the seventh millennium and the beginning of the new heavens and new earth, Yahweh will remove that veil. Understanding will be restored, or given at that time. The overall preponderance of mankind have never known Yahweh. The overall preponderance of mankind have never heard of His name, nor the name of His Son. They have never even had access to the Scriptures.

It says that the books will be opened. What books? The books of the Scriptures! People have already paid for their sinful life in the flesh through death. They will now have an opportunity to come to see, know and understand Yahweh, and His word the Holy Scriptures. They will then be judged by the works that they produce, or fail to produce at that time. The successful will be given life. Those who continue to love the works of wickedness will suffer the judgment of hell-fire, which is the second death from which there will be no resurrection.

Yahweh is merciful and forgiving. He will open people's minds to understand His truths and have an opportunity to inherit the new heavens and new earth wherein dwells righteousness. HalleluYah!!!!

Da. 4:36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

COMMENT: Evidently, Nebuchadnezzar will be established as a king over the Gentiles in that future glorious existence. People do need to understand that Yahweh is an Elohim and King. He presides over the kingdom of/from heaven. All kingdoms have kings, rulers, governors, subjects, territory, and laws. May Yahweh's kingdom come! HalleluYah!!!!

ANSWERING LETTERS

Dear Brother in Yahshua,

I am convinced that you are correct in your use of "Yahshua" and "Yahweh" in the biblical texts. Also, I am convinced that you are correct in observing the Sabbath during the 24 hour beginning on Friday at sunset.

There is an applicable proverb which, if not part of The Book of Proverbs, probably should be, "Even a blind squirrel finds a nut occasionally."

It is absolutely beyond comprehension to me why you would go out of your way to pick a fight with Yahweh's natural laws and advocate "creationism." By so doing, you subject every Christian, even those with a third grade education, to ridicule and abuse.

Please note that I live in West Virginia. We already have plenty of ignorance and buffoonery here; there is no need to import more.

Please terminate any subscriptions that I have on record with your organization and strike my name from your mailing list.

SF/WV

ANSWER: Dear SF, What planet do you come from? Have you ever read the Scriptures? Don't the Scriptures begin....that's right!!!!!!....begin with "creationism?" "In the beginning Elohim CREATED the heavens and the earth," Gen. 1:1. What part of this opening verse is it that you can't seem to understand?

The word "created" occurs five times in the very first chapter of Scripture alone. It occurs forty five times in the Scriptures, while the word "create" occurs eight times. Yahweh speaks everything into existence by the word of His power (Psa. 33) and upholds it by that same word (Heb. 1) which is Yahshua the Messiah (Jn. 1). It appears to us that you are falling for the fallacious teachings of evolution. We are not butting heads with Yahweh's natural laws that He has set in motion by the word of His power, but rather with the evolutionists who don't even believe in a Creator and will not give Him the esteem and honor of being the Creator or even existing.

Your letter is rather enigmatic and confusing when you say that you believe that Yahweh and Yahshua are correct as well as the 7th day Sabbath, but you refuse to believe in creationism.

Your proverb also reveals that you feel that Yahweh's word and proverbs are incomplete and need some other foolish made up proverb by man in order to be more complete. Preposterous!

Your statement about subjecting every Christian to ridicule and abuse is also confusing. In case you haven't noticed, the first believers in Yahshua were exposed to ridicule and abuse for believing in Him and proclaiming it. Today, Christians are being exposed to ridicule and abuse for continuing to support the Scriptures even though they don't live by them. Creation/creationism is true, a fact. If we must face ridicule and abuse for believing in truth/fact, then so be it. We will rejoice in it!

We have fulfilled your desire to be stricken from our mailing list. We certainly hope your name won't be stricken from the book of life.

In Yahshua, Jerry

Dear Mr. Healan,

I'm writing you in regards to your most recent newsletter. Let me ask you a question, do you know the difference between Shiite, Sunnah, & Radical Islam? Well I do. I studied under Sunnah which is the life and teachings of the prophet Mohammad. I do know one thing, or rather, a couple things I agree with (1) There is only one God – Paleo Hebrew – אֱלֹהִים the meaning of the Dead Sea Scrolls pg. 124 Box 6.11 Psalms 145:12 & pg. 174 figure 7.2 Davidic superscriptions Psalm 151 A it was never אֱלֹהִים. (2) They believe Jesus-YHSHWH was a prophet. Orthodox Jews don't even recognize our Savior as even that. Christians wounded His name by bringing His name to nothing and associated His name with a pagan Romanized deity Zeus or sus or Heh Zeus. I know this much, Mr. Healan, from studying your material. And you have over the years pointed and directed me on the right path, but אֱלֹהִים has brought me much further in my studies and to the full knowledge of the truth in every way imaginable, but through His Son.

None of us will ever agree on everything or anything if we don't have first love in our hearts for one another. We are supposed to pray for these people, not bash them. When He appears all will know that He is our sacrificial Lamb that takes away the sins of the world. Shouldn't we be more like YHSHWH or like David, a man after YHWH's own heart, to love. People need to really delve into the beatitudes in Matthew 5:3-12, 42-45, "But I say unto you love your enemies, bless them which despitefully use you, and persecute you that ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust alike.

I was a Muslim not knowing the truth fully but I got out of it respectfully, and went right back and got out of it again. Yes, there was some hostility and still is, but 2 days ago I was eating my Kosher (yes, Kosher, remember I came to the full knowledge of the truth. Yes, I am a Yahudi, a Nazirite – dully devoted to YHSHWH as my Savior.) and a Muslim asked me for some, or rather, a spoon of my cottage cheese, him being a black man and myself being white, and especially in prison, this is really frowned upon, him being a Muslim and me being a Jew (Yahudi) woa! So I gave him a spoon, or rather I slid my tray over so he could get some with his spoon. He thanked me and I got to thinking about it, Man, everybody must think I'm weak, but bam! –Pride...this is of Satan, this thought, so I said, "Hey my brother, would you like some more? He said, Man, yeah!

Eph. 6: We fight not against flesh & blood....The way we fight against the enemy is by doing good. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify our Father in heaven.

Today, at dinner, I had the head Imam (Muslim) sit down with me with 2 other Muslims and start talking to me, not trying to reconvert me but devoted men searching for the truth. And I know hashatan's devices and tricks and schemes trying to reel me back in, nope, ain't happening. I'd said all this to say "Love covers a multitude of sin." YHWH is love.

If it's the Father's will that America be overcome and ruled by Muslims, who are we to stand up and say "Father you're wrong!?" We can only pray that whoever or whatever it is, that He will give us His strength to carry on and stand strong when the final tribulation comes and we can only do that in & through His Son our Savior, glory be to His Holy Name. hwhy Shalom my brothers & sisters and whoever might read this letter of love. GDR/KY

Shalom Brother GDR,

Thank you for your letter of correction for the purpose of setting things straight and showing us the better way. You are right, the best example is that of love which we see coming from the Father of grace who blesses the evil and the good. We are so happy for you that you have advanced beyond our own realm of understanding, and that your heart is set steadfastly on the Son of Elohim Yahshua.

As for your charge of Muslim bashing, the fact of the matter is that I haven't written anything to any Muslims unless they are on our mailing list and it is my prayer that they will follow your own example of leaving that lifestyle for the truth that is revealed in Yahshua the Messiah.

However, I must reveal to the Muslims who they are worshipping and serving, as well as the Christians, and any Jewish people, and also pagans who will receive it. You see, true love will point and direct people to their only hope for the saving of their souls which is Yahshua the Messiah.

Yes, the Jews despise Him, and the Christians have perverted Him, but surely you know that even though Islam may declare Him to be a prophet, you still won't be able to find any of Yahweh's Scriptures in countries that are primarily Islamic, because they ban the truth and stick only to the Koran.

They exalt their prophet Mohammad above and over Yahshua of Whom Moses reveals that He is THAT PROPHET that the people must hear, and if they refuse, then they will be destroyed from among the people. Islam will not allow their people to listen to him, so they are headed down the road to destruction also. They must be warned! Are you willing to do that in the great love that you have grown into? I hope so. You can count on us to do our part in that warning.

To exalt Mohammed above Yahshua is blasphemous, to say the least. I know that Yahweh allowed Islam to be raised up because He is going to utilize Islam to punish the errant Christians and Jews who have strayed from their original roots, idolatrous pagans also. Yahweh's word reveals that punishment and destruction will befall His people in the last days, which are fast approaching.

Let us wisely prepare ourselves and seek to warn others to escape the impending disaster that is coming upon this earth in the not too distant future. Let us know how we can help you and Yahweh willing, we will be able to work together to publish the truth in love!

May Yahweh bless in Yahshua,
Jerry JH

Elder Healan,

I have an important question. We have a brother new to the faith who has a book entitled "Fossilized Customs" 9th edition by Lew White. He says that the Old Testament was originally written in Paleo Hebrew. In the transition to modern Hebrew the proper name was lost. He says that the proper pronunciation is Yah-Hoo-ah utilizing the pronunciation of YaHuDah (Judah) as an example. Take out the dalet (d/ד) and the pronunciation would be as above.

ANSWER:

This author believed at one time that the Scriptures were originally written by Moses in Paleo Hebrew until the discovery of Pictorial Hebrew. While observing a program concerning Egypt's building of the pyramids, caves where the workers (slaves) were housed revealed Pictorial Hebrew written on the walls. Therefore, we must assume that the Scriptures were originally written in Pictorial Hebrew. (No one knows for sure because there are no original scrolls in existence, that we know of.)

One of the things that we must seriously consider is the fact that Josephus declared that the Sacred Name consisted of four vowels (Wars of the Jews, Book V, verse 8, p. 556).

In his book Seek My Face, Speak My Name, Rabbi Arthur Green writes, "...all the letters that make up this name served in ancient Hebrew interchangeably as consonants and vowels. Really they are mere vowels, mere breath. There is nothing hard or defined in their sound,” pp. 18.

Yahshua said that Yahweh is spirit and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth (Jn. 4:24).

The Hebrew word for spirit is ruach, which is also the word for breath! Since Yahweh is spirit, then so is His name!

With this information we can determine some things. If the four letters of the Creator’s name are vowels, then no more vowels can be added, neither can there be hard sounds. Therefore, the construct that some are utilizing in today’s word are not accurate. For example Jehovah, Yehovah, Yahveh, Yahvah, etc.

Years ago, I addressed the use of Yahuwah. Yahuwah is spoken like Yah-huw-wah. Yah = YH, huw = HU, Wah = WH. So in that pronunciation we have YHHWWH, six letters, six vowels. The absolute best way to represent this name in the English language is with four vowels, that is; IAUE, or YAUE.

Why then do we utilize Yahweh? Only for the sake of pronunciation. Most people would look at IAUE, or YAUE and never understand how to pronounce it.

Now as for the name YaHuDaH, which in the English is Judah, the name is rendered in The Interlinear Bible by J. P. Green as יהוּדָהּ as also do most web sites on the internet. With the vowel pointing here the name would be pronounced Yehudah (slowly), but when sped up in natural speech it would be pronounced Yudah (like our Judah but with the “Y”). In this case, the hei (ה) following the yod (י) becomes silent.

The primary Hebrew letters that serve as both consonants and vowels are aleph (א), hei (ה), waw (ו), yod (י), and ayin (ע). The amazing thing about each of these letters is that each one can carry the sound of all five of the vowels a, e, i, o, and u, depending on the word spoken. (Remember that the “w” can also serve as a vowel since it is actually a “double u.”

In essence, we must go back to the Scriptures to understand the make-up of Yudah’s (Judah’s) name. His mother Leah was in a battle with her sister Rachel for Jacob's (Yacob's) favor and love. Yudah was her fourth son by him so she said that she would "praise" (odah/אָדָה [the root word is yadah/יָדָה]) Yahweh (יְהוָה), so she named him Yudah. Being a combination of these two words, as we see above, neither Yudah, nor Yahudah can be utilized to force the pronunciation of the Creator's name. However, neither will we condemn others for attempting to utilize their idea of the correct pronunciation by utilizing Yehovah, Yehowah, Yahuwah, Yahuweh, Yahvah, Yahveh, Yahweh, Yahwah, etc., etc.

Here is what we must understand, we are all like children. When children begin to try to pronounce their father's or mother's names, they usually never get it right, and their attempts are generally humorous, to say the least. But do the parents become angered and unforgiving? Absolutely not. It is a thing of joy for the parents to hear their children to begin to attempt to pronounce their names. Our heavenly Father is even more loving and forgiving than any earthly parents.

We live in a very sophisticated world today. All languages have corrupted, even the Hebrew. A study of modern day Hebrew and Biblical Hebrew is different. If we went back several hundred years in the English language, we wouldn't be able to recognize the speech at all. Hebrew has transpired from the Pictorial to the Paleo, and now to the modern day Aramaic/Babylonian style. Other nations and languages have also influenced it. Let's all do our best to learn what we can, and not be judgmental, nor condemning of others. After all, Yahweh does promise to restore us to a pure lip/language in His own chosen time. We just need to resist as much corruption and paganization as possible.

I know that we all want to get it as right as we can. Let us be convinced in our own minds. We are convinced that the pronunciation is Yahweh. I have been told by some who have declared that they were on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem on Atonement and they heard the Jewish people proclaim the name Yahweh.

However, for others are not so convinced on this pronunciation, we know that they are children of the Creator and He will show us His truth as we seek to search it out.

Today, Yahweh's family is scattered, but tomorrow He is going to provide shepherds who will bring His sheep into unity. HalleluYah!!!! May that day speed on!

QUESTION:

Why do you continue to utilize the letter "J" in other names of Scriptural persons, and only correct the name of the Creator and Savior?

ANSWER:

The Creator's and Savior's names are the names of salvation. (Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21; Ro. 10:13) Therefore, we want to get as close as we can to their true names. But let's face it, we live in a country and actually a world that is familiar with the modern day English versions of the Scriptures. While our publications go to many believers, they also go to so many new people also. The introduction to the true names, along with the elimination of the terms God, the LORD, Jesus, etc. along with the introduction of El and Elohim are shock enough.

For now, we will continue to utilize the "J" in other names in hopes that new babes will not become confused. When Yahweh tells us that we must change even that, then we will do so. JH

QUESTION:

We have been using YAHrusalem for the name of Yahweh's city. Is this correct?

ANSWER:

Jerusalem was originally a city of the Jebusites, a Canaanite tribe. We can find no justification for utilizing Yah-rusalem. A search of the Scriptures, concordances, etc. always point to Yerushalayim, or Jerusalem.

QUESTION:

A friend of mine and I were discussing Mary, the mother of the Savior. We can find that the Scriptures speak of Mary having other sons and daughters in Mt. 12:46; 13:55-56; Mk. 6:3; 1 Cor. 9:5, etc.

Would you please write and explain from other books not available to us here on this subject?

ANSWER:

The Scriptures which you are presenting also declare that only two or three witnesses are required to establish a thing. We know that the Catholic Church and some Protestants teach that Miriam was a perpetual virgin, but she was married to a man named Joseph who knew her not until she had brought forth her firstborn son (Mt. 1:25).

She had to be a virgin according to Isaiah the prophet (Isa. 7:14). Also, she was to bear the Son of Elohim. Prior to His birth, she was not to be defiled by the sex act until Yahshua, the Son of Elohim was born. Yahshua was to be pure, without blemish, without sin, etc. Men are descendants of Adam, and Yahshua was his descendant through the woman, but not through the man. We are all the sons of Adam and we all suffer the consequences of his sin, but Yahshua was the Son of Yahweh.

Our natural inheritance comes from Adam, but Yahshua's inheritance comes from heaven, from whence he came. Through Yahshua, we can also inherit the heavenly inheritance.

Plainly, Yahshua had four brothers who are named in the Scriptures, and sisters also. While the sisters are not named, we know that there were at least two, because of the plural words involved. JH

COMMENT FROM A PRISONER ON BIBLE CORRESPONDENCE LESSON FOUR:

Please read and do what it says...It costs too much to send all extra at this time. (NOTE: This man evidently ordered a large quantity of materials which we had to limit because of the mailing expense.)

First off, if $5.24 is too much money to send the truth to others then you really should not be teaching the truth. If it's too much money to send to some that are wanting to learn. So I am so happy Yahshua never gave me the heart to put a burden on limiting someone the truth. It's always money this, money that, with people in this world "wow" that's sad. However, I only want to continue my lessons. HLB,Jr./GA

ANSWER:

Dear HLB,Jr.,

We have received your Lesson Four Quiz with your comment on $5.24 being too much money to send the truth to others. We don't know what you are talking about unless you recently ordered some materials that exceeded the amount that we are allowed to send via first class mail.

But here is our problem, we have over 1,500 people on our mailing list. Close to 90% are men and women in prison, like yourself. We only have less than 20 people on our mailing list who faithfully donate to us each month. None of those donations exceed $225.00, and most are in the $25.00 to $50.00 range. Our expenses last year exceeded our income by over $5,000.00.

We know and understand that the truth is precious and priceless, but we are attempting to wisely utilize what Yahweh has given us so that we have enough to go around. After all, we not only offer the Bible Correspondence Course free of charge, but as you know, we send out the Yahshua's Witness Magazine, YEA Newsletter, Search The Scriptures Publication, and countless other articles, reprints, booklets, tracts, etc.

Let me educate you a little more concerning our situation. We have been publishing our materials free of charge since 1997. The number of men and women in prison that we have served is almost astronomical. We receive some of the most heart-warming and exciting letters from so many who are so joyful that they have found the truth. Many state that they had to go to prison in order to save their lives because of their downward path to destruction in the outside world. Then they came into contact with our life saving materials and they are so happy and joyful. You don't know how many have promised that upon their release, they will become a part of this assembly and will faithfully support us. Out of those many who have promised, how many do you think are supporting us? You can count them on the fingers of one hand.

But let me ask you something else. Would you send $5.24 to us in order to provide the truth, not for yourself, but for someone else? Can you send $5.24 for that help? If the truth is so important to you, not that we are demanding that you do so, because we never ask for money. Our covenant with Yahweh is that He is Yahweh Yireh (Provider) and we will trust in Him and not man to supply our needs. But to make a point, you are receiving our materials at no cost to yourself. We will not ask for money, nor will we ever expect to receive financial help from you. We are not merchants. We are seeking to serve you and as many others like yourself as we can with what Yahweh had given us. We apologize that the amount ($5.24) was over the amount allowed to mail, but the Post Office has its rules, and we have to set our accordingly.

We hope that you understand. Be blessed in Yahshua, Jerry

CHUCK'S LETTER TO HIS/OUR FAMILY

Below is a letter from an ex-inmate to those he left behind upon his release. It contains good lessons for all of us to learn from, but it is especially encouraging to those who are behind bars. We certainly hope you enjoy, and are encouraged by this letter.

Dear brother Leroy,

I received your card and letter postmarked Jan. 15th, 2014, today, Jan. 17th. I immediately opened it and sat down to read it all. I was very moved by the sentiments, best wishes and thoughts that you all shared. It brought me close to tears (no, I didn't cry, but I could have). I rally miss all my friends and acquaintances at South Unit, even some of the officers and staff. My emotions go far beyond the spiritual as I write this. To say I love all of you doesn't really say enough, but its more true than you all may realize. We were family at South Unit, and still are, as far as I am concerned.

I miss my Y.E.S Fellowship brothers. I miss my brothers and sisters as A.A. I miss my brothers in Echo Dorm, and the other dorms (A-B-C-D, and F). I miss the pups too, even though my allergies made it impossible to enjoy the pups up close and personal. I miss the chapel regulars and witnessing to the newcomers and the ole' timers. I miss the choir and the songs that were sung and have been sung over the years from the old red covered Methodist hymnbooks. I miss chaplain, even as we might disagree on some points of doctrine, she and I believe the same book and higher power as we understood what and who that is.

Having tried to list all those that I miss (including the volunteers who minister at chapel, again even as I might see doctrine (-s) differently than some of them do) you might wonder at this point what I'm really trying to communicate?

Someone once asked me; based on observing my everyday routine that included my praying and Bible studying, and being in the midst of a number of people who were prone to judge, based on the charges that brought me to prison and labeled me for life, whether inside prison or in the outside world, "if I was happy?" I smiled as I replied, "show me someone who says he is happy in prison and I'll help you grab him and take him to the "psych. Doc."

"No," I said, "the Scriptures say to be 'content'...for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content." For reverence with contentment is great gain. Having food to eat and clothes to wear and shelter, we should be satisfied with it all." This is all Scriptural taken verbatim from Phil. 4:11, and 1 Tim. 6:6,8 (double checked my own concordance).

Webster's Dictionary says basically to be satisfied with one's lot (portion). It may be a play on words, as semantics usually are; as "happy" is defined by Webster as; having, showing, or causing great pleasure or joy. Nonetheless, while I have learned to be satisfied with my immediate circumstances, I will never find great pleasure and joy while there are others whom I previously mentioned in this letter, who are behind thick concrete walls, surrounded by high fences and razor wire, who are separated from family and loved ones, who seek but cannot find that peace that surpasses all understanding because they do not have a relationship with their Creator and Heavenly Father, and His only begotten son, Messiah Yahshua Emmanuel, and are NOT yet filled with their Holy set apart Spirit. This was a message I tried to share while I was in prison and still attempt to share with others who struggle in the “Free” world, and my brothers and sisters who dwell within the prison that surrounds them anywhere.

I found that the “Keys” to complete release from the prison we may occupy, comes from the intimate knowledge of the Scripture and an awe and reverence for our Creator/Father Yahweh Elohim, and Messiah Yahshua Emmanuel.

Brother Leroy, I believe you, with the help of the brotherhood of those who follow Messiah as their Redeemer and Sovereign, can share this message for me as I am limited in my own ability to share this “Good News” of Freedom with all of those who need to hear it.

Until all of us know who our true Higher Power, Creator, Heavenly Father is, none of us can experience Peace and Joy that such knowledge of His love and His salvation brings.

If you read this, and put it aside

A VITAL NEED!!!!!!

We received this letter from Sabbath Keeper’s Fellowship. It reveals an urgent need!

to return to life’s everyday routine, then you have completely missed the point. This, I realize, is my challenge to you and everyone and anyone else reading this right now.

Ya’aqob (James) said it best in his letter to the twelve tribes in his second chapter. It’s not just what we believe is the truth, it’s putting our faith into action!

You are my brother, my family, my friend, and also the brotherhood of Y.E.S (Rev. 14:13). Share the love. Do it today; the love of Messiah has given us commands it. Amen

Shalom, Brother Chuck Balfe

EDITOR: I hope this letter very positively affects everyone who reads it. This is the depth of conversion that we all should be striving for. May Yahweh continue to greatly bless Brother Chuck, and may his love, which is the love of the Qodesh Spirit, continue to abound and affect all he comes in contact with.

Dear Jerry,

Shalom Aleyka, b’shem Yehoshua Hamashiach, Adoneinu—

Peace to you, in the name of YHWH Most High and in the name of His Son, our Savior. I hope you are well and greatly blessed of our Father.

For some years now, Sabbath Keeper's Fellowship has been sponsoring an annual Passover Package Program for Sabbath-keeping prisoners nationwide who cannot otherwise afford or obtain the basic necessities required in order to keep that commanded feast. To say the least, the program has been a huge success. In fact, it has grown so quickly and so large that SKF is having trouble this year in supporting it. As of this writing, our charitable donations are down 25% for the year, and the $10,000.00 in order to be able to serve the over 2500 believers requesting packages. We have never before asked you for anything except your prayers, and we still need those, but right now we need other help from you as well, and we need it quickly.

You, as a free-world believer and friend of Sabbath Keepers Fellowship, are one of the few people we can depend upon to carry us and support us in times of great need. Right now is certainly one of those times. And it is not only you we need help from this time, but we need help from your friends, family, and those of your own congregation as well. We need you to be the agent that speaks to all of them on our behalf. No one else can do this for us.

Then we need you to ask them all to prayerfully consider becoming regular donors to SKF. We are a dependable ministry with a good reputation, and have been for over nearly two decades. We are a 501(c)(3) charity, so donations are tax deductible, and every dollar donated to us goes to our charitable work. Our's is a worthy mission, and our beneficiaries are some of the most helpless and needy in the nation.

We estimate that if everyone on our mailing list would only send $20, we could meet all of our goals for this year. Of course, they won't. Many will reason in their hearts that others will take care of it, so we'll need those who do help to send as much as they are able. But every penny counts, and we will be grateful for anything you, and those you enlist, can send us. Then, finally, we need you to join together with us in petitioning YHWH Most High in prayer until all of our needs are met. Please don't forget us and those we serve. Please don't let us down.

When we first realized our situation with this year's program was so dire, we considered cancelling it. Some thought the task was too great to achieve. But, we recalled the children of Yisrael thought so, too, when they were told to cross the Red Sea. Others of us thought we should probably wait and pray, trusting the YHWH would or would not provide for our needs regardless of anything we might think to do. Then we recalled the words of YHWH to Moshe as he and the children of Yisrael stood at the seashore waiting to cross: "Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Yisrael, and let them go forward. And you, lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it." And so we, too, have decided it is now time to act on behalf of all those who are dependant upon us in order to keep Passover.

You are the staff in our hand. It is you who will or will not act along with us this year in order to salvage the Passover Package Program. Do not think that someone else will do it. There is no one else. We and all of your brothers and sisters in Messiah need your help. And, we need it now.

We estimate that approximately 100 commandments are kept by each person who celebrates Passover. That's about 250,000 commandments kept by those who receive our packages. The blessings that flow from the combined observances of everyone we serve because of this program are, no doubt, tremendous. YHWH surely hears all of our voices and takes notice of this huge effort. This year, you have the opportunity to join with us in making it happen, even reaping some of those many blessings for yourself. As a free-world believer with the many resources and diverse contact you have, you have the power to do this, and we don't without you. Please, make it your personal and community mission to see this year's Passover Package Program succeed.

May the Most High bless your efforts and answer your prayers. Thank you, in advance, and we will be waiting to hear from you. B'Shalom,

Lisa Haufler, Director, SKF

EDITOR:

Brethren, this is a very noble and noteworthy cause. We know the problem with donations because our income fell short of our expenses last year by a little over $5,000. Therefore, their dependence on me to stir anyone to donate above and beyond is rather deficient in reality. However, we are posting this letter in this publication in hopes that you will be moved to rush to their aid in this project.

Remember, Passover will soon be here. Please do what you can to help! JH

COMMENTARY ON EZEKIEL 21:1-25

A dear lady on our subscriber list has requested that I do a commentary on Ezekiel chapter 21. The following is a response to that request. JH Yahweh's word is a word of revelation from beginning to end. It reveals how deceived the whole world is. Revelation 12:9 reveals that there is a dragon, that old serpent called the devil and Satan, who has deceived the whole world!

The Prophet Ezekiel was chosen by the Word of Yahweh (Who became Yahshua the Messiah) to reveal some things that would happen to Jerusalem in the last days.

Ez. 21:1 And the word of Yahweh came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

COMMENT: The place spoken of here is definitely the city of Jerusalem with her so-called holy places. The Jews, Christians, and Muslims all consider Jerusalem to be a holy city. But what makes anything holy? Wouldn't it be the presence of Yahweh? If Yahweh is there (remember Moses at the burning bush [Ex. 3], and Yahshua the son of Nun? [Josh. 5:13-15]), then the place is holy, but if He is not there, then it isn't.

Ez. 21:3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith Yahweh; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: 5 That all flesh may know that I Yahweh have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more. 6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. 7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? That thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Sovereign Yahweh. 8 Again the word of Yahweh came unto me, saying, 9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith Yahweh; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished: 10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? It contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

COMMENT: The people have been "strong" to pursue unrighteousness, wickedness, and evil. But those things, while appealing to the flesh and the vanity of mind, actually corrupt and weaken the flesh. When Yahweh appears in His great wrath, the strength of the flesh will become as weak as water.

Notice also that the word "sword" is utilized twice. Jerusalem has been destroyed twice by the sword. The first time by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and the second time by Titus of Rome, the successor of the kingdom of Babylon.

Ez. 21:11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. 12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh. 13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? It shall be no more, saith the Sovereign Yahweh. 14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

COMMENT: Notice that it says to double the sword the THIRD TIME! This is speaking of modern day Jerusalem, Israel. Jerusalem is to be numbered to the sword a third time. That time is yet future, but not too far away now. Also, in verse 10 it says that it is furbished that it may glitter. Glitter is translated from the Hebrew word “baraq”, pronounced just like the name of the current president of the United States, “Barak!”

Ez. 21:15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! It is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter. 16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set. 17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I Yahweh have said it.

COMMENT: The word “baraq” is utilized again in verse 15, being translated as “bright.”

Ez. 21:18 The word of Yahweh came unto me again, saying, 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. 20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. 22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. 23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. 24 Therefore thus saith the Sovereign Yahweh; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

COMMENT: Even though Jerusalem has been destroyed twice for her sins, her people who have returned in these last days have not repented of their sins. The city is absolutely filled with her so-called holy places from Muslim mosques, to Jewish synagogues, to Christian churches. It has been made a city of tourism for monetary gain. Even the homosexuals are now holding their gay parades there and elsewhere in Israel.

Yahweh calls her Sodom and Egypt, "And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the Elohim of the earth. And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Sovereign was crucified," Rev. 11:8.

The Prophet Jeremiah was inspired to declare, "Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other elohim whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith Yahweh.” Jer. 7:8-11

The Hebrew word for “robbers” is periytes from whence we obtain our English word PIRATES! Pirates ply the seas under the banner of the “SKULL AND CROSSBONES!” The “skull and crossbones” is a most important symbol for “FREEMASONRY,” both Jewish, and Gentile freemasonry! This was taking place in both Ezekiel’s, and Jeremiah’s day who were contemporary.

The same thing was taking place in Yahshua’s day. He cleansed the temple twice; at the beginning of His ministry (Jn. 2:12-16), and at the end of His ministry, “And Yahshua went into the temple of Yahweh, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves,” Mt. 21:13 (See also, Mk. 11:17; Lk. 19:46).

When He returns, He will find that the same condition will exist not only in Jerusalem, but throughout the world where churches, synagogues, and temples will have been built supposedly to worship the Creator.

Ez. 21:25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 26 Thus saith the Sovereign Yahweh; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.²⁷ I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

COMMENT: He says He will overturn, overturn, overturn. This can also be translated as "overthrow." Three times Jerusalem must be overturned, or overthrown until the One comes to Whom it belongs. That is Yahshua the Messiah, the Prince of Peace. Jerusalem is supposed to be the "City of peace."

But why can there be no peace in modern day Jerusalem? The Prophet Hosea was inspired to proclaim, “But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me,” Hos. 6:7

“Men” in the preceding Scripture is translated from the Hebrew word “Adam.” Adam is not presented in the Scripture as plural, but rather in the singular (check it out for yourself).

Adam was cast out of the garden because he broke the covenant that was made between Yahweh and himself. He ate of the forbidden fruit.

Israel and Judah likewise broke their covenant with Yahweh turning to the worship of the host of heaven. Therefore, they were cast out of the land. Judah was allowed to return in order to prepare another temple and people for the appearing of the Messiah, but even though they appeared to be righteous (Yahshua declared that they were full of dead men’s bones, and all uncleanness [Mt. 23:27]), they were working the works of Freemasonry which has to do with the worship of the “host of heaven.”

Yahweh placed cherubim and a flaming sword at the entrance to Eden so that no man could return there. Hasn’t He done the same thing to modern day Israel and Judah?

In essence, there was peace in the environs of the land of Canaan until the Jews created their modern day country which they named Israel. That’s when the warfare began in earnest.

The Muslims are dedicated to the destruction of Israel because they hate that name! Their founder Mohammed and their religion, Islam, declares that they are the descendants of Ishmael, the son of Abraham by Hagar, the Egyptian bondswoman.

Ishmael was cast out of Abraham’s house because Sarah caught Ishmael mocking Isaac on the day that he was weaned, “And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking. Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac. And the thing was very grievous in Abraham’s sight because of his son. And Elohim said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Isaac shall thy seed be called,” Gen. 21:9-12.

The scornful mocking has grown into a very bitter hatred toward the descendants of Isaac through Jacob/Israel.

Yahweh has allowed Islam to be raised up in order to aid in fulfilling His will and prophecies.

Harkening back to Freemasonry, Albert Pike, in his book Morals and Dogma, links every degree of Freemasonry to all of the pagan gods and goddesses.

Too many people are deceived concerning the return of Judah to the land and their acquiring Jerusalem once again. The ones who sought to restore the Jews to their homeland are the Illuminati, and Freemasons. So many of the Illuminati are unbelievers. Others, including the Freemasons are worshippers of the host of heaven, which Yahweh abhors. They appear to be righteous keepers of the Torah, but are really involved with the occult. Jerusalem must fall again to another king of Babylon.

Daniel 11:14 says, “...the robbers (periytes/pirates) of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.”

This took place just before, during and after the days that Yahshua appeared on earth. It has taken place once again in these last days.

The true spirit of the leaders is revealed in the Scriptures, not only of modern day Israel, but America also, “And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment? Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. Then shall they cry unto Yahweh, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. Thus saith Yahweh concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he

that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of Elohim. But truly I am full of power by the spirit of Yahweh, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity. They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon Yahweh, and say, Is not Yahweh among us? none evil can come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest," Micah 3:All.

Zephaniah reveals, "Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city! She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in Yahweh; she drew not near to her Elohim. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law," 3:1-3.

Jeremiah adds, "O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhacerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction. I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman. The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath Yahweh of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited. Thus saith Yahweh of hosts, They shall throughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of Yahweh is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of Yahweh; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith Yahweh. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith Yahweh," Jer. 6:1-15.

These are apt descriptions of both the nation named Israel in these last days, as well as our own America. Our leaders are extremely corrupt. They are in the process of lying, cheating, stealing, etc., and the people will not hold them accountable. As it proclaims, from the greatest to the least is found nothing but covetousness. We are rapidly approaching the end of days! Wrath is soon going to be poured out!

Scripture says, "The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge," Prov. 1:7. It also says, "The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy ones is understanding," Prov. 9:10.

We must turn to Yahweh with all of our hearts! Yahshua said, "...because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold," Mt. 24:12.

Iniquity, of course, is lawlessness. Lawlessness means to be without law, especially Yahweh's law. Lawlessness is the rule of the day in the churches, among the people, among the leaders. Even the U.S. president is exhibiting lawlessness, which is being effectively reported on the internet, and some news agencies.

Disaster is coming not only on Jerusalem and Israel, but also on America! Wrath will soon be poured out! How soon? It has already been prepared, Yahweh will do it in His own chosen time, but the truth is that we are very near the end of this age.

This age will end with death, destruction, wrath being poured out on the wicked.

Yahshua is quoted in Luke as saying, "And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken," Lk. 21:25-26.

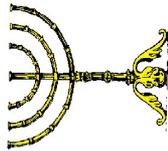

We can escape these things by rallying to Yahweh through Yahshua the Messiah. He is our only door of escape!

A new age is coming wherein dwells righteousness. Jerusalem, Judah, and Israel will be established under their great King Yahshua the Messiah. May you, may we all be blessed to see and live in that day!!!! JH
