Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of Elohim in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from Yahweh only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Mosheh, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Mosheh, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? (John 5:39—47)

FROM THE EDITOR

JUST A FEW WORDS

Shalom Brethren, I just wanted to begin this edition with a few words, to at first, apologize that we are providing such a tremendous amount of information in our newsletters, magazine, etc. But we must understand that the times are soon going to come upon us wherein no man can work. So we need to get as much information into your hands as we possibly can.

We are continuing our series on the book of Daniel in this issue. We are focusing on Daniel chapter two. Then we feel that we need to answer some questions that are regularly being asked of us. Finally, we have a letter from a man who calls himself a Black Hebrew and is calling judgment upon America for her participation in slavery. His letter is rather lengthy, and so is our answer to him. Sadly, I am not able to give him and you all of the information that I would like to provide, but there is a history provided in this issue that should turn his anger and hatred elsewhere if he has a mind to receive it.

I have a couple of articles that I want to run in a later edition. One is entitled "What Has Been Worse Than Slavery For The African American Population," and another about Margaret Sanger, the mother of "Planned Parenthood."

Now Hillary Clinton applauded Margaret Sanger in a speech when presented with the Margaret Sanger Award in 2009.

So who was Margaret Sanger? She wanted to implement a birth control system similar to that in Russia being directed by the Stalinist Communists. She saw the freedom of abortion practiced in Russia, and spoke to a KKK rally in 1926 about the desire to improve the human race by eliminating the "weeds, morons, and imbeciles of especially the black race.

Hmmm....She was a Democrat. She wanted to eliminate the black race through an abortion program called "The Negro Project." This was music to the ears of the KKK which, by the way, was founded by Democrats!

Let's also think about Hillary Clinton's praises of Margaret Sanger, and that very special Margaret Sanger award that was given in her honor.

Do we really think that the Democrats have everyone's needs, desires, and cares in mind? The Clintons, Obamas, and yes, even the Bushes are in bed with some of the most wicked and evil people on earth.

Abortion, eugenics, and homosexuality is being forced of us. These are disastrous policies that will usher in destruction on us. People need to begin to speak out.

Abortion destroys our heirs, eugenics destroys life, homosexuality ends family lifelines. We all know and have heard of the judgment of homosexual-

A STUDY INTO THE BOOK OF DANIEL

DANIEL CHAPTER 2

This is a most important chapter of Daniel for us to understand as it has to do with the history of the world governments from the fall of Jerusalem until its re-establishment of the most glorious city of the world.

Da 2:1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the Elohim of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

COMMENT: We must keep in mind that Nebuchadnezzar is king of Babylon, the king of confusion. He is sent a dream from Yahweh, the Elohim of the Hebrews. He knows that he has been given a most important dream and message, but the dream escaped him. Therefore, he resorted to the magicians, astrologers, sorcerers, and Chaldeans, in effect, all of the wise men of the kingdom to help him recall the dream and to know its interpretation.

The response of all of the wise men of his kingdom was that no matter who or what their gods were, or whatever powers that they possessed, they were powerless to interpret his dream unless he was able to recount to them the specifics of that dream. This is a very important and vital lesson for the people of Yahweh and all peoples. Those who live in confusion, those who live in Babylon and partake of her idolatrous worship of their many, many false gods, simply don't have the ability, nor power to know or interpret that which Yahweh gives. Yahweh reserves His secrets to Himself and to His own chosen people. He is about to reveal His own excellence and the excellence of those whom He chooses over the idolatrous paganized gods and systems of this world through His Hebrew servant

Daniel.

Da 2:19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the Elohim of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of Elohim for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou Elohim of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

COMMENT: Daniel is deeply humbled by what His Elohim Yahweh has revealed to him, and praises Him for the deep secrets that He possesses and reveals to His servants. Too many, when they think they have the inside status and special understanding from their elohim, take credit to themselves and seek to exalt themselves above others. Any special understanding that Yahweh gives to any person should humble that person so that Yahweh receives the esteem and honor instead of lifting themselves up.

Da 2:24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 But there is an Elohim in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

COMMENT: Notice that Daniel interceded not only on his own behalf, but on behalf of the others also. He begins to reveal to the king what is going to come to pass from the present unto the latter days giving Yahweh the credit before the king.

Da 2:31 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

COMMENT: The Aramaic for "image" is tselem, which is also the Hebrew equivalent. The Aramaic word is defined as: an idolatrous image. The Hebrew word is defined as: to shade; a phantom, i.e. (figuratively) illusion, resemblance; hence, a representative figure, especially an idol.

Thus, the following explanation is a prophecy concerning the history of idolatry beginning with Babylon and being finalized in the latter days. We will discover the last kingdom as we proceed through these Scriptures.

The image's brightness has to do with a pre-eminence. It is something that dazzles even though it has to do with idolatry. The word "terrible" is translated from the Aramaic word dechal, which is defined as: to slink, i.e. (by implication) to fear, or (causatively) be formidable. It is generally translated as: make afraid, dreadful, fear, terrible. The Hebrew equivalent is zachal, which is defined as: to crawl; by implication, to fear. It is generally translated as: be afraid, serpent, worm.

We would suggest that you review our article "Dust Unto Dust" that we ran in our Apr.-Jun. 2010 Yahshua's Witness Magazine, or order our free booklet that was made from that article. Generally speaking, if we go back to Genesis chapter 3, after Adam and Eve took of the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil, curses were placed upon the serpent, the woman, and the man. The serpent was told that from that time dust would be his food, while the man was told that he was made of dust and would return to it. (vv. 14-19) Yahweh, in effect, appointed the man (dust) to be the serpent's food (dust).

We must also point out the fact that Satan is the prince of the power of the air (Eph. 2:2), as well as the god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4) in establishing the fact that this present evil world belongs to him. Remember that he offered Yahshua all of the kingdoms of the world if He would just bow down and worship him (Mt. 4:1-9; Lk. 4:1-7). Once the power of Israel (the holy people) was destroyed, the kingdoms of the world were placed under the power of the serpent. Therefore, let's keep in mind that these kingdoms that are beginning to be delineated here are all the serpent's kingdoms until the establishment of the kingdom of heaven.

Da 2:32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the Elohim of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

COMMENT: The various sections of this idolatrous image typify the successive kingdoms that would have rule upon the earth. The head of gold was symbolic of Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian kingdom. What we also need to make special note of is that Yahweh has made Nebuchadnezzar a "king of kings", which is the very title that Yahshua is to possess in the kingdom of heaven, " And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND SOVEREIGN OF SOVEREIGNS," Rev. 19:16.

A second kingdom would follow Babylon that would have rule over the earth which is proven in Scripture as well as secular history to have been the kingdom of the Medes and Persians. This was the breast and arms of silver. It was one kingdom ruled by two kings and peoples Darius of the Medes, and Cyrus of the Persians.

The belly and thighs of brass/copper was to be the third kingdom begun by Alexander the Great. It began as one kingdom under Alexander even though it was known as the Greco-Macedonian Kingdom. After his death, his four generals received power who divided it into four kingdoms, but during that period of time after Alexander the focus was on the northern Seleucid Kingdom and the southern Egyptian Kingdom who fought for control over each other and also over Canaan which included, of course, Jerusalem.

The fourth kingdom of iron was Rome. Rome became one of the greatest kingdoms of that area of the world. She expanded to have power over the preponderance of Europe, the Middle East, and northern Africa. Rome's scope of power and influence was/is to continue until the kingdom of heaven replaces it.

The stone that was cut out without hands is, of course, Yahshua the Messiah Who will soon return to the earth to overthrow the kingdoms of this world and take the power of the kingdom to Himself and His followers which will be a kingdom of light, truth, and righteousness.

ANALYZING THE METALS:
Since this is an idolatrous image, let's take a look at the metals to see what we can discover.

1. The first metal is gold, which is considered to be the most precious of metals. This metal was incorporated into Yahweh's tabernacle vessels, etc. and later in the temple. It has always also been utilized by the pagan idolatrous religions to represent their chief deity which is the sun. All golden images represented the pagan's sun deities.

Gold is soft, pliable, moldable. It can also be utilized to represent Nebuchadnezzar's spirit which we will find is full of failures, but when Yahweh worked with him he was perfectly willing and able to change giving the esteem to Yahweh. This head of gold represented the beginning of Gentile world ruling kingdoms on earth which was established to be the best that man could live under.

2. Silver is also a precious metal, but certainly doesn't have the value of gold. This metal was also incorporated into the tabernacle and temple. In pagan idolatry, silver represented their moon gods and goddesses. This metal was utilized to represent the second Gentile kingdom. The kings of Media and Persia also had spirits similar to that of Nebuchadnezzar wherein they were pliable and moldable.

3. Brass is a brilliantly shiny metal, but it is hard and unbending. The interesting thing about this metal is its Aramaic name which is nachash. Nachash is also the word for SERPENT! The underlying spirit of all idolatry is that of the serpent. He is represented as a shining star as in Isaiah 14:12. He is transformed into an angel of light (2 Cor. 11:14). He hates Yahweh's way and seeks to exalt himself above the throne of Yahweh (Isa. 14:13-14). The Greek kingdom and spirit always sought to exalt itself and its deities, especially Zeus, above all other kingdoms and gods. This Greek spirit is still in the world today, exalting itself above that of the Hebrew Elohim. The Greek spirit seeks to proclaim that the Old Testament was inspired in Hebrew, but the New Testament in Greek. This is a lie that has been foisted upon the world since the days of Constantine the Great.

4. Iron in the Aramaic is parzel. It comes from two chief words par and zalal. Par has to do with a bullock (as breaking forth in wild strength). Zalal has to do with being loose morally, worthless, and/or prodigal.

Such is the nature of idolatry. All pagans worshipped the golden calf (a bullock). The Pharaoh of Egypt was worshipped as the son of god through the Apis bull. The Assyrians represented winged bulls with men's heads in much of their sculpture. The people of India, especially the Hindus, still worship cattle to this day! But Satan is so subtle that he can cause people to embrace and highly favor the Greek way, also utilizing words that lead people to worship the bullock without them even knowing or understanding it. You see....the word God is linked with the constellation Taurus the Bull from the earliest origins of the English language. The Creator Yahweh was never called god/God in the Hebrew. He was Yahweh Elohim/Yahweh El...Adonai Yahweh, etc.

Idolatry is a system that encourages immorality, loose morals. There were female and male prostitutes in the temples of idolatry. Many of the women worshippers, even though they were married, were forced to serve in the temples from time to time. Idolatry is a worthless system that produces sin, corruption and death, not life, peace and righteousness. But the overall great preponderance of mankind prefers this way.

The Hebrew word for iron is barzel. It is also a combination of two Hebrew words bar and zalal. Bar has to do with a son. Zalal once again has to do with being loose morally, worthless, and/or prodigal.

When the Hebrew sons and daughters embraced the tenets of idolatry, turning away from their Great Creator Elohim Yahweh to worship the gods of gold, silver, wood, etc., they became prodigal children. All who are involved in idolatry are prodigal children and must repent and turn to their Creator Elohim.

Iron is also a very hard metal that, like brass, is unbending revealing the nature, the spirit of those who are involved in idolatry. They are blinded and even though the real truth might be revealed to them, they think that they are already worshipping the Elohim of heaven and will not turn away from that system. They do not have a love for the truth, because their way seems right and the way to go. (see 2 Thes. 2 for those who love not the truth.)

5. Potter's clay reveals fragility. But it also adds another idea from Scripture. The Prophet Isaiah was inspired to declare, " But now, O Yahweh, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand," Isa. 64:8.

Jeremiah also confirms that Israel is the potter's clay, "The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith Yahweh. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel," Jer. 18:1-6.

Jeremiah's book of Lamentations reveals, "How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!" Lam. 4:1-2.

The potter's clay represents the amalgamation of the house of Israel into the Roman Empire! Rome was known as Esau, Edom, Amalek, Seir, and Tyre in Rabbinic literature. Isaac, Esau's and Jacob's father had prophesied that Esau would eventually break Jacob's yoke from off his neck, " And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck," Gen. 27:40.

Under the inspiration of Yahweh, the prophet Balaam prophesied, " And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish forever," Num. 24:20. "Was" is interjected in italics because it is not a part of the original Scriptures. Amalek was Esau's grandson by his oldest son Eliphaz (My god is gold). Amalek became the first (reshiyth/רֵאשִׁיטָה) of the Gentiles (goyim)/nations. We will touch on this a little later.

Israel became divided into two kingdoms after Solomon's reign. The northern kingdom was named Israel, while the southern kingdom was named Judah. Israel went into captivity by the hand of the Assyrians in 723 - 721 BCE. Ezekiel prophesied that that particular captivity would endure for 390 years (Ez. 4:1-5). In 333 BCE, exactly 390 years later, Alexander the Great defeated the Persians at the Battle of Issus which freed the captive Israelites who swept from the Caucasus Mountain area into Georgia and then west into Europe, and eventually the British Isles and America.

The Romans waged war against them, overcoming them and blending them into the Empire. They were the Celts, Gauls, Goths, some Germans, etc. While some of the Gauls, Goths, etc. did invade Rome and take the city, the result was that they settled down in its environs and continued the Roman government's policies.

Yahweh had warned Israel that if they failed to obey Him then they would be cursed to destruction, and the curse of destruction came upon both the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah. He had warned them that refusal to obey Him would cause their heaven to become brass, and their earth to become iron (Dt. 28:23). This means that they would be subject to the kingdoms of Greece and Rome. The heaven being brass has to do with the gods of the Greeks becoming their gods, and they (Israel) would come under the bondage of the government of Rome ruled by Esau and his descendants.

The Greek form of government was democracy, while the Roman form of government was republican. Shouldn't this warn us and inform us as to the system that our own government is under. Our governmental system is patterned after the Greek/Roman systems.

If the statue is standing with the legs apart, then this denotes division and, sure enough, Rome was divided between east and west. The western headquarters is, of course, the Latin kingdom ruled from Rome. The empire eventually became so great that it was difficult to just rule it at Rome. Constantine built the city of Constantinople (also called Roma Nova/New Rome; formerly called Byzantium) and moved the center of the empire east to that city. It was located on the Bosphorus Straits at the entry to the Black Sea. This was called the "Golden Horn" because its situation caused it to be a most favored and busy port and economic center.

6. Miry clay adds another bit of information. Miry in Aramaic is tiyn (ܛܝܢ), but one of the corresponding Hebrew words for "miry" is yaven (יָבֵן). Is it any coincidence that yaven (יָבֵן) is spelled exactly like Yavan (יָוָן) who is a descendant of Noah's son Japheth? Is it any coincidence that Yavan is known to be the father of the Ionians or Greeks? Is it any coincidence that when Constantine built Constantinople and transferred the center of the empire to that area, that the eastern half of the empire became Greek in nature? Is it any coincidence that Yavan and yaven both come from the Hebrew root word yayin (יָיִן), which is the Hebrew word for wine? Is it any coincidence that the final phase of Babylon revealed in the book of Revelation chapter 17 has a woman named Mystery Babylon the Great, mother of harlots and abominations of the earth, and she is riding a scarlet colored beast having also a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and the filthiness of her abominations? The kings of the earth have committed fornication with her and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine (yayin) of her fornication. (Rev. 17:1-5)

The Psalmist David cried out, " I waited patiently for Yahweh; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry (יִי/ya'ven) clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings," Psa. 40:1-2.

Again he cried out, " Save me, O Elohim; for the waters are come in unto my soul. I sink in deep mire (יִי/ya'ven), where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me," Psa. 69:1-2.

King David is "anointed", that is, a messiah. He is a type of Yahshua the Messiah and, of course, is one of His forefathers. King David was also a prophet and he is here prophesying of a time when Yahshua would be looked upon as a Greek and Latin savior, surrounded with Greek and Latin practices, and given a name that is a combination of the Latin Yesus, the Greek Iesous, and the Druidic Esus/Yesu (pronounced Hesus).

This was also prophesied in the book of Zechariah chapter 3, "And he shewed me Yahshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yahweh, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And Yahweh said unto Satan, Yahweh rebuke thee, O Satan; even Yahweh that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Yahshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment. And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of Yahweh stood by," Zech. 3:1-5.

Yahshua the high priest is a type Yahshua the Heavenly High Priest after the order of Melchizedek (Psa. 110). Satan is at his right hand to "resist" him. Picture this; If Yahshua and Satan are in heaven standing before the throne of the Father Yahweh, and Scripture reveals that Yahshua would be standing at Yahweh's right hand (Psa. 110; Stephen saw Yahshua standing at the right hand of the Father, Acts 7:55-56), then Satan would be standing at the Father's left hand, but he would be at Yahshua's right hand!

"Resist" and Satan are both translated from the exact same Hebrew word! That word is satan (שָׂטָן)! Satan has utilized the tenets of idolatry to clothe Yahshua with the garments of idolatry! Beginning with Babylon, Persia, and Greece, Satan utilized their idolatrous ways to exalt the pagan idolatrous sun and moon gods and goddesses. According to Psalms 2, and Revelation 17 and 18, he also utilized the earthly kings, rulers, and priest-hoods to cause the world to be steeped in idolatry. But when Yahshua came in the flesh, Satan couldn't deny this vital truth, but he just utilized corrupted men and corrupted men's minds to change the truth into a lie (Ro. 1:25) and caused the earth to worship the creation rather than the Creator. It is vital to understand these things!

The history of idolatry revealed here therefore, is that Babylon, Medo-Persia, Macedonia-Greece, and Rome are the kingdoms represented here. Rome is first an iron kingdom that eventually becomes part of iron and part of potter's clay because of the amalgamation of the descendants of Israel into the kingdom. The kingdom becomes divided and in the latter days of the toes, the kingdom is iron and miry clay, that is, Latin and Greek.

The gold, silver, iron, iron and potter's clay, iron and miry clay is a revelation of great corruption. The kingdom began with the preciousness of gold, but ends as iron and miry clay.

But the city of Rome became divided into three great cities of the world which became great centers of the paganized Christian religion. The first city, of course, was Rome, Italy which was the headquarters of the Latin Kingdom and the Roman Catholic Church. The second Rome was Constantinople, originally Byzantium, which became Roma Nova (New Rome), or the second Rome. It became headquarters of the Greek Orthodox Church. But when Constantinople fell in 1453 CE, the headquarters of the eastern half of the Roman Empire was transferred to Moscow, Russia, which is also known in history as the Third Rome. Moscow became headquarters for the Russian Orthodox Church. However, eventually Amalek, who feared not Elohim (Dt. 25:18) would be the first, the chief in the kingdom. The descendants of Amalek, whose doctrines are atheistic Communism, socialism, and humanism are the present day chief rulers.

Now, let's quickly go to the book of Revelation and see if we can't understand what is actually being said, " And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before Yahweh, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath," Rev. 16:17-19.

The fact of the matter is that this is speaking of the city of Rome that became divided into three great cities Old Rome, New Rome and the Third Rome (Rome, Constantinople, and Moscow). They became the cities of the nation's or Gentile's (Goyim) religion that had stemmed initially from Babylon. In other words, it was from these three great cities that the perverted Christian religion issued forth, that is; Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox. The Protestant religions also came out of the Roman Catholic Church. This makes her the mother of harlots and abominations, because even though they came out of her, they have never changed their idolatrous practices to follow after the commands of the great Creator Yahweh.

One final comment for this section is that the image was revealed as one body whose head is Babylon. The image would be in the form of a man. The head is the control center of the whole body. Therefore, even though the kingdoms of Medo-Persia, Greco-Macedonia, and Rome all followed Babylon, they all follow their control center, which is the Babylonian head. That is why the book of Revelation reveals modern day Babylon in its final stages, even though it is also the last vestiges of the Roman Empire.

Da. 2:44 And in the days of these kings shall the Elohim of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great Elohim hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

COMMENT: A mountain is likened to a kingdom. Yahshua appeared on the earth during the reign of the fourth kingdom (Rome). He is this stone that is cut out of the mountain without hands. In other words, the works of man's hands has nothing to do with the kingdom that is to be established in Yahshua. This is Yahweh's doing, "I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation. The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. This is Yahweh's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes. This is the day which Yahweh hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it," Psa. 118:21-24.

Both the Aramaic word for "stone" in Daniel 2, and the Hebrew word for "stone" in Psalms 118 are the same. It is the Aramaic/Hebrew word eben (אבן). This simple little Aramaic/Hebrew word can be divided into two words. The first word consists of the first two letters "ab" (אב) which is the word for FATHER! The second word is "ben" (בן) which is the word for SON!

Yahshua said, "I and my Father are one," Jn. 10:30. He told the disciples, "Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake," Jn. 14:11. He prayed, "That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me," Jn. 17:21.

These are spiritual mysteries that must be understood. But the stone cut out without hands is Yahshua the Messiah. He will return to this earth in these latter days to establish the kingdom of heaven.

Yahshua, who is the Stone, was rejected by His own people, the Jews (Jn. 1:11), but even though it appears that the Gentile world and its leaders (the builders) have embraced Him, they also are in the state of rejection because they have changed Him into a pagan savior and deity.

Whether you want to believe this or not, Yahweh has this last part written in the earth, or should we say, etched into it. If you take a look at a map of Europe and the Mediterranean Sea, you will see that Italy, the original headquarters of Rome, is actually formed like a foot or boot. The island of Sicily appears at the toe of the boot/foot. It gives the picture of a stone, not cut out with human hands, that is ready to smite the toe of the boot/foot. A great earthquake could move that island onto the toe of the boot/foot. Do you think that Yahweh had this etched into the earth and sea for us to see? Do you see how Yahweh can hide things in plain sight?

Da 2:46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your Elohim is a Elohim of elohim, and a Sovereign of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

COMMENT: The Aramaic word for "secrets" and "secret" is raz (רז), which, in actuality, means mystery/mysteries. Paul writes, "But we speak the wisdom of Elo-him in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which Yahweh ordained before the world unto our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Sovereign of glory. But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which Yahweh hath prepared for them that love him. But Yahweh hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of Elohim. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of Elohim knoweth no man, but the Spirit of Elohim. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of Elohim; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of Yahweh. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of Elohim: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned," 1 Cor. 2:7-14.

Nebuchadnezzar was a prince, a king of this world wherein dwelt the spirit of man, but not the spirit of Yahweh. Therefore, he couldn't understand the things that were given to him until the Spirit of Yahweh revealed them to him through the prophet Daniel. Daniel knew where to go to learn of the dream and its meanings in the beginning because he was Hebrew and had been and still was a worshipper of Yahweh. Yahweh was the only Elohim Who had the power to give the dream to Nebuchadnezzar and to reveal exactly what that dream was and what it meant through Daniel, His servant. Nebuchadnezzar came to know and understand this, but the world has a great tendency to forget, to its detriment.

Daniel chapter three will follow in the next issue of Search The Scriptures.

ANSWERING QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS

Comment on Lesson Seven Quiz sheet of the Bible Correspondence Course: Good lesson! This is a keeper as in never give it away. The 1050 commandments listed from the N.T. in the back; very helpful and I've never seen a list like it. I have a booklet with the 613 laws (commands) in the Tanakh I received from the House of Yahweh in case you're interested. TB/Texas

ANSWER: Thanks for your comments and inquiry. But let me give you a little history concerning the 613 commandments. These commandments weren't concocted by the House of Yahweh, but rather by Rabbinic Judaism. There was evidently discussion concerning them during Yahshua's day because He had a young man come and ask Him, "And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?" Mt. 19:16.

Notice Yahshua's reply, "And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, Elohim: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments," v. 17.

The young man responded, "Which?" To which Yahshua replied,, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself," vv. 18-19.

Shouldn't we find it interesting and revealing that Yahshua didn't respond with, "Why, the 613 commandments outlined in the Torah, of course!?" Shouldn't we also find it interesting that the young man asked, "Which"?

But Yahshua began to quote five commandments of the Decalogue or the Ten Commandments which were written on the tables of stone by the finger of Yahweh, Himself. Then He followed those five commandments up by summarizing, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

Evidently, the young man still felt that there was something beyond that because he followed up with a statement and another question, "The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?" v. 20.

Again Yahshua replied, "If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me," v. 21.

This just happened to be the straw that broke the camel's back for the young man because, "...when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions," v. 22.

Let me explain what this reveals to me..... Yahshua left out half...five of the Ten Commandments. The first four, and the tenth. The first four have to do with Loving Yahweh with all of our heart, all of our mind, all of our soul. Since the young man had great possessions, his actions revealed that he was covetous of them (Thou shalt not covet). He was being offered a high position in the kingdom of heaven of which Yahweh is the only true Elohim, "I am Yahweh thy Elohim, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other elohim before me," Ex. 20:2-3. He was making his possessions to be more important to himself than Yahweh our Elohim, and His glorious kingdom that He will usher in through His only begotten Son, Yahshua the Messiah.

James tells us, "If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty," Jas. 2:8-9.

Notice that James is calling the commandments that describe how we are to love our neighbour as ourselves "the royal law," and also, "the law of liberty." But there is a part of the law that is greater even than this, according to Yahshua, "Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Yahshua said unto him, Thou shalt love Yahweh thy Elohim with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets," Mt. 22:35-36.

In every case addressed here nothing is said about the 613 commandments. Only the Decalogue, or portions thereof are addressed. So many of the 613 commandments, concocted by the Pharisees, deal only with the physical, carnal, fleshly things, and in reality, don't apply to everyone in every instance. Also, Yahweh, Himself, doesn't call these so-called commandments, commandments. He calls them ordinances, statutes and judgments, etc. Many of the so-called 613 commandments dealt only with the sacrifices, others dealt only with the Levitical priesthood, others dealt only with men, others dealt only with women, children, etc., etc.

It is impossible for you, whether you are a priest, a man, or woman, or a child, to keep all of the 613 so-called commandments. Yet, I have heard so many profess that they keep the 613 commandments. When asked what those commandments are, they can't even begin to enumerate them. So how can one keep them if they can't even enumerate them?

Whether people will admit it or not, they can't even perfectly obey the Ten Commandments. They describe what sin is, yet Paul reveals that there is a law of sin in our flesh that we must continually do battle with (Ro. 7:7-25; Gal. 5:16-17), and even John, who commands us not to sin, follows up his command with, "And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Yahshua the Messiah the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world," 1 Jn. 2:1-2.

This is not to say that the statutes, judgments, and ordinances are not to be observed. Many of them are good for our physical well-being. We do practice many of these things in our lives that do apply to us and for our health, but that being said, the ten commandments are still the royal law of liberty.

Comment on Lesson Five quiz sheet of the Bible Correspondence Course:

So many say to me that I worry about legalism, and I need some of your wisdom in this matter.

ANSWER: I do understand the problem. I was explaining to a Pentecostal one time that we keep the ten commandments. He responded, "You are a legalist." This is a term that modern day Christianity has utilized against commandment keepers, but they simply aren't understanding what they are implying. What does it mean to be legal? Webster defines "legal" as, "of, created by, based upon, or authorized by law. In conformity with the positive rules of law; permitted by law."

The opposite to legal is illegal which is defined as; prohibited by law; against the law; unlawful; illicit; also, not authorized or sanctioned, as by rules. Also, "illegitimate" is defined as; incorrectly deduced or concluded; not logical. Contrary to law or rules; illegal, unlawful.

Nominal Christianity teaches that the law is done away, which, if this is true, then there is no more sin, because it is the law that describes to us what sin is. After all, John defines sin for us, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law," 1 Jn. 3:4.

If the law is done away, then why are there so many hell-fire and brimstone sermons from Christian pulpits against sin? Why won't the Christian ministers tell their people the Scriptural definition of sin?

If there is no law, then there is no sin. Therefore, the Christians are correct in calling us "legalists," but they are, in reality, in error in their understanding of the law. They are the ones who are "illegal." Their doctrines are doctrines of iniquity.

Iniquity is defined as; illegality, i.e. violation of law or (genitive case) wickedness (Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, Greek Lexicon, #458. It is translated from the Greek word anomia, which is from the word anomos (#459), defined as; from 1 (as a negative particle) and 3551; lawless, i.e. (negatively) not subject to (the Jewish) law; (by implication, a Gentile), or (positively) wicked.

Wouldn't "lawless" mean to be without law, or in other words, the law is done away, so they are without law.

The very apostle that they uphold in deeming that the law is done away is the same one who wrote, "...we establish the law." Ro. 3:31 (last part).

He also wrote that the law is spiritual, "For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin," Ro. 7:14. In verse 12 he said that the law is holy and the commandment holy, just and good.

The law teaches us to avoid the evil and embrace the way that is good so we can be legal, however, since there is a law of sin in our members, we must always struggle against it with the help and grace that we receive through Yahshua the Messiah.

Your friends and associates, sadly, are ignorant of these things because of the teachers who have wrested the writings of Paul to their own destruction because they are, in reality, unlearned and unstable.

In actuality, they are seeking to accuse you of being Pharisaic in your outlook, because of your desire to obey Yahweh's commandments. But the Pharisees trusted in themselves that they were righteous, without the true righteousness that we have in Yahshua the Messiah. This is, of course, something that we all must avoid. Sadly, some of our brothers haven't learned of the merciful grace that we have in Yahshua, and seek to put themselves and others under the covenant of Moses, rather than the covenant of Yahshua. Be very careful that you don't fall into this category.

May Yahweh greatly bless,

Jerry

Dear Brother Jerry,

I just wanted to write and let you know that I got all the literature you sent. Brother, you impressed me with the Santa Claus article. It's good. I knew about Nico and laos, but never put it together with Nicholas.

I am anxious to meet you and hug your neck. Sister Frances' too. You do realize it was your magazine article "Consider the Egg" that opened my and brother James Diaz's eyes to the truth. Ever since then there has been no looking back. Yahweh's spirit shows me wonderful things in His Holy Scriptures that I never knew existed. I see and I hear now. Thank you for your labor and love for the truth and Yahweh's people.

P.S. Your labor is not in vain, brother.

JBW/TX

Dear Mr. Healan,

I just recently came to know the truth about the Creator's name and the Messiah. I do very much appreciate the materials that you sent me. I am trying to get a better understanding on all of this stuff so when I talk to other people about it I know that the heck I am talking about.

Now me and a few other brothers in my dorm are a little confused about the Sabbath and the new year and the dates matching up. So I thought rather than to continue in confusion, to just shoot you a quick letter to ask for your guidance.

When looking at the calendar that you provided me, we see the first day of the year is on the 13th of march, a Wednesday. So the 7th day of the year is a Tuesday. How does this work? It's not the Sabbath, is it? The little booklet "Search the Scriptures" that you sent me said the Sabbath is a set day. When looking at Leviticus 23:24 it says that the 7th month the first day will (shall) be a Sabbath which, according to the calendar you provided me, it falls on a Saturday September 7th. OK this points me to think the Sabbath is Saturday. But the next year is the 1st of the 7th month going to fall on a Saturday? You say that we go by the moon for the start of the months. Is it going to line up? What about verse 32, "It shall be unto you a Sabbath of rest" speaking of the day of Atonement which falls on a Monday, September 16th.

Am I missing something, or over analyzing it? I want to be sure! I go by the Scripture. If it can't be backed by the Scripture I don't believe it. This is where my questions come from, is the Scripture. When I proclaim the word to other people I use the word more than my own words and I think that is how it should be.

I want to thank you for your time in this matter and for your dedication towards the cause. I only hope that I can help as many people as you are to come to the truth. I have already sent letters to several churches about the wrong teachings they are spreading and I ask for your prayer in this matter also. Thank you and may Yahweh bless you abundantly in days to come!

Your Brother,

PE/FL

Dear PE,

I do thank you for your positive comments, and also your questions. If we don't ask questions, then we don't learn. Also, if we don't face controversy, and search matters out, then we don't learn.

The seven day Sabbath cycle is a cycle all its own. It is not determined by the cycles of the moon. Such is the same case even for Caesar's calendar. The monthly cycle never determines the weekly cycle. The seven day weekly cycle of Caesar's calendar is in line with Yahweh's seven day Sabbath cycle. But there are also annual holy day cycles determined by the moon's cycles. On the first day of the first moon of the year, we begin to count 14 days to Passover. The 15th day is the first holy day, and seven days later, the 21st day is another annual holy day. The annual count to Pentecost brings us to the first day of the week because the count begins with the day after the Sabbath that occurs during the days of Unleavened Bread. We count 7 times 7 weeks or 49 days which brings us to the seventh day Sabbath. The 50th day is Pentecost which takes place on a first day of the week (Sunday on Caesar's calendar). It just so happens that the new moon of the seventh month does take place on a seventh day Sabbath this year, but the holy days of the seventh month are called Sabbatons, not Sabbaths (excluding Atonement). All of the annual holy days will most likely fall on a common week day, not a seventh day Sabbath.

I know that the KJV will call some of those feast days "Sabbaths" but the Hebrew is not Shabbat (שבת), but rather Sabbaton (שבתון). There is a difference, because they generally don't occur on the seventh day Sabbath.

The day of Atonement is called a Shabbat Sabbaton. This author has discovered the reason that it is called such is that it begins the annual count. Yahweh told Israel to begin counting from the day of Atonement six years, and the seventh year was to be an annual Sabbath wherein the land and work animals, etc. were to rest. Seven times seven years was, of course, 49 years, and the 50th year was to be the Jubilee. (See Lev. 25).

Your confusion reveals that you are trying to begin the weekly Sabbath cycles with the first day of the new moon. It will never work out right. Please refer to our last Search The Scriptures (#116) for more understanding on this issue pages 18-26.

In Yahshua,

Lesson 5 Comment: On page 8 under the #12 of this study is a comment concerning Adam's "purposefully" following Eve's example. She ate. Then Adam ate. Adam was not deceived as we are told in 1 Tim. 2:13-14. There is a question here begging to be answered. Why then did he eat the fruit? If Adam KNEW he would die (he was not deceived), he must of had a reason for eating. And he did. He loved her. Elohim, Himself, made Adam single (y). And Elohim said, "It is NOT GOOD," didn't He?.....Imagine that! Not good (Gen. 2:18). Elohim knew it wasn't good but he did it anyway. And he had a very good reason....a very good reason. You see, Elohim knew they would become one flesh. And one flesh means "inseparable." He gave her a part of himself - his rib.....because he loved her. And Adam did not want to be alone. It would have been "NOT GOOD."

Adam is a type. A true type.

1. The first Adam. The last Adam.
2. The first Adam's side was pierced for his bride. So the last.
3. The first Adam died. So the last.
4. Elohim saw the love that his first son had for his wife. So Elohim saw his only begotten's for his. Otherwise there would have been NO SACRIFICE FOR US. As in the case with Satan (pride, no love involved) and the one-third. There was no sacrifice because there was NO LOVE. that is why he loved us even when we were un-lovely. Husbands love your wives....as....Messiah loves the assembly. What Elohim has joined is joined. Adam knew this. So did Elohim. Because it was NOT GOOD for man to be alone. Just like it is NOT GOOD for Elohim to be alone with no son(s). Or Yahshua, His son, to have NO BRIDE.....So women, you HAD BETTER SHOW HONOR and RESPECT to your man (husband). And oh, the woman. What grief. Good grief though.

Like I said, the question was begging to be answered. (And no, I don't condone sin. Eve's or Adam's)

DS/PA

Dear DS,

Thank you for seeking to clarify, or expand on our comment in the Correspondence Course. It does sound so good and right, but there are some flaws in your insight that I can hopefully help with if you will allow me the honor to do so. You say that Adam loved Eve, and he did. But you imply that he loved her so much that he gave a rib out of his side for her. I don't see that in the Scriptures. I see that he and Elohim were searching for an helpmeet for him out of all of the other creatures, and of course none was found. So Elohim caused a deep sleep to come upon him (a type of death), He took a rib out of his side and brought her to Adam wherein Adam declared that she was bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh so he called her woman. Yahweh followed up by proclaiming that the man and woman should become one flesh.

Of course he loved her, and she loved him. They were the only man and woman on the whole planet. But this is a love story gone sour because they took of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

We could say that their subsequent love story is revealed in what we call ancient mythology, but I won't go there. But look at their first two descendants. One was righteous, good, and the other was unrighteous, evil, and a murderer. Then, of course, their descendants became so evil and corrupt that they had to be destroyed by a flood. Isn't there a Scripture that says, "Where there is no vision, the people perish?" (Prov. 29:18, first part) We have now come to the days that are like the days of Noah. If Yahweh's hand doesn't intervene soon (out of His great love for us) all flesh will soon perish.

I agree that there are two Adam's. I agree that both were put to sleep and something taken out of their side in order to bring forth a bride for them. The first Adam had a bride of flesh. She was made out of a rib. The second Adam's bride is to be spirit because of the water (a type of the spirit) that came out of his side when he was pierced. Of course, the blood was also poured forth in order to cover her sins, and the sins of the whole world.

The real love story is the love of Yahweh for His creation. Yahshua was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, or before the foundation of the world.

But consider this. Because the woman was deceived, the Messiah was to come from her seed, but since the man wasn't deceived, the Messiah couldn't come from his seed. The man's seed was corrupt. The man's seed has the law of sin, corruption and death in it. So Yahweh had to cause the virgin woman (Miriam) to conceive through the power of the Holy Spirit so that the Messiah could empty Himself of His heavenly esteem, become a man, dwell among us as flesh, yes, son of man (through the woman), and son of Elohim (through the Holy Spirit).

Your last comments concerning the husbands loving their wives is certainly an exhortation from Scripture, but that has to do with those who are converted with the Spirit of Yahweh. The women should respect their husbands as they do the Messiah, which again, is a command for the spiritually imbued. It just isn't possible for carnal minded men and women to fulfill these things. This isn't to say that there aren't carnal marriages that don't continue until "death do us part." But remember, all of our own righteousness are as filthy rags (Isa. 64:6).

You do have some good insight concerning your comparison of the two Adams, but remember this, through the first Adam we inherit sin, corruption, destruction, death.

The reason is that the man, because of his disobedience, was assigned as the serpent's food. It is through the second Adam that we have an inheritance of eternal life, power, honor, esteem, incorruption, and immortality. May that day come soon!

Jerry

Dear YEA Ministry,

YEA has blessed me so much, and as I am blessed with finances to buy some healthy food items and health care items, I want share some of my blessings with you. I have sent stamps to help you reach others with your materials. When I think of how much you have spent on me, I am embarrassed to send so few stamps. But if everyone who has received your magazines, newsletters, and correspondence courses would send even a small gift such as mine; you would be encouraged I'm sure. Thank you, and I hope to, and intend to be a greater encouragement.

In His love, MC/GA

Dear MC,

Thank you so much for your gift, and your kind, but true words. May Yahweh greatly bless you as you seek Him and marvelous Son and ways.

Jerry

Shalom,

I want to take some time to write and thank you all for your love of Yahweh and the faithful service you all do for the Most Holy One. Yahweh's Spirit is moving with power in the Colorado prisons. Fremont prison has approximately 100 faithful members who follow the Sabbath and feast/fast days of Yahweh. I believe all of Colorado's prisons have small communities of Messianic believers. I was moved from Fremont to CTCF (Territorial) about 7 months ago. I found six members struggling along. I was one of seven elders at Fremont so I took the position here quite quickly and realized that this was the reason why Yah moved me here. We are up to 18 members now and are observing correctly according to Yahweh's teaching and instructions. I share newsletters, magazines, etc. that come in due to the fact that most of the men here struggle to just come up with one extra stamp. Thank you all again. May the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob bless you all and keep you all.

ZG/CO

If you have a pamphlet on the word "Lord" and how this word or title is not a good title for Yahweh and Yahshua, please send me one please.

JC/CA

ANSWER:

I certainly don't want to get people's emotions stirred up, but we do need to answer this question. You see, the reason why we refrain from the use of this term is because it is the major term that is utilized to replace Yahweh's name in the Scriptures. The name Yahweh (יהוה) is the proper name of the Creator, His memorial (Ex. 3:14-15; Psa. 135:13; Hos. 12:5).

What man has done is to remove the proper name Yahweh and replace it with a common noun "the Lord." This, in actuality, takes the common noun, making a proper noun out of it, which is error. A search of the Scriptures will also reveal that the word "Baal" is actually a common noun generally utilized in the Scriptures as "ha-baal"). Ha-baal actually means "the lord." So the English interpreters took the proper name Yahweh, converted it to the common term "the Lord" and took the common Hebrew term "ha-baal" (the lord) and made it into a proper noun (Baal).

Jeremiah prophesies, "I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? Yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal," Jer. 23:25-27.

This prophecy has come to pass as the world has forgotten the name Yahweh because of the use of the term "the Lord."

There are some Hebrew terms that appear with the name Yahweh such as "ha-adon Yahweh," or "adonai-Yahweh," etc. We generally say "the sovereign Yahweh", or "the master Yahweh," but there wouldn't be anything wrong with saying "the lord Yahweh" if that is what we chose to do. After all, we are returning the term "lord" to its rightful place as a common noun, and not a proper noun, nor as a replacement for the true name Yahweh.

To Whom It May Concern:

Hello, my name is M..... M..... and I am currently at a prison in PA. I want to tell you how I came across the publication of your magazine. I went to church one Sunday and the sermon was on law. I was confused a little about what the preacher had said "the law was put away by Jesus," but at the next sentence said to follow the law of Jesus. So that made me want to study for myself. I read the Old Testament law, and some things

Jesus had said, and to me, they seemed similar in what constitute text. So I prayed and asked for knowledge about it. Two days later I was walking up the block and this guy asked me if I wanted something to read. I said yes, and he handed me your Apr.-Jun. 2012 issue of the magazine. First I read "Covered By The Blood" article and understood this is way deeper than what the church leads us to believe. The point is I want to learn more. I would like to receive your newsletter and a list of any other material that you may have to help with this journey. It would be greatly appreciated. And being that I'm not doing life in here, I give you my word as a man that you will receive my change of address when I leave to help you save you money, and when I can, I'll send some to help the cause! Thanks for your time and effort!

CALENDAR CORRECTION

We have received a few comments concerning our calendar that we sent with the last issue of Search The Scriptures. Specifically, the new moon of November and December are incorrect. A review of the actual dates originally derived reveals that the new moon date for November should be the 5th rather than the 15th, and December should be the 4th rather than the 14th. Evidently, one of the many distractions that we receive on a continual daily basis is the culprit for these errors. Please mark your calendars accordingly. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused.

A PROBLEMATIC LETTER FROM A BLACK HEBREW

Dear Mr. Healan

I have been subscriber to "Search The Scriptures" for several years. I personally have found the publication to be helpful in many respects. However, the editorial page of issue #116 (Nov.-Jan. 2013) gave reason for pause. I took a moment to ponder your question:

"America is now on the demise and only Yahweh's intervention can stop it, but will he?"

The answer is a resounding, "No!"

Contrary to what many would like to believe, the decline of the United States is not the result of policies put for by Presidents Obama or Bush. No, the root of the United States' current condition goes much deeper than the decisions made by these two men.

First of all, it must be made absolutely clear that:

Yahweh is Sovereign

No man, and no nation, escapes his righteous judgments. There are no exceptions. Yahweh did not spare His own nation Israel for her sins, and He will not spare the United States. To allow the people of this nation to think otherwise is deceptive.

The Bible says:

"Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of disaster! You give shameful counsel to your house, cutting off many peoples, and sin against your own soul. For the stone will cry out from the wall, and the beam from the timbers will answer it. Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed, who establish a city by iniquity! Behold, is it not of Yahweh of hosts that the peoples labor to feed the fire, and the nations weary themselves in vain?" Hab. 2:9-12

Question: Did the western Europeans covet this land?

Answer: Yes. This land was inhabited and was taken by force.

Question: did this nation "set its nest on high" to avoid disaster?

Answer: Yes. America has built the most powerful military ever known.

Question: Does America give shameful counsel to her house?

Answer: Yes. Her leaders, teachers, and preachers put forth a sanitised version of American history. Therefore, America remains unrepentant and arrogant.

Question: Was this nation established by blood shed?

Answer: Yes. More than half the native population was exterminated, and some estimates put that number as high as 98%. More than twelve million African slaves were brutalised and forced to labor in the fields of America. Many were worked and beaten to death. These atrocities are at the very foundation of the United States of America.

Question: did these peoples deserve to be treated in such a manner?

Answer: In strict Biblical terms, yes. The failure to adhere to Scriptural law will always result in chastisement.

Question: Does this absolve the actions of the European-Americans?

Answer: No. The bible puts it this way: "Do not be deceived, Elohim is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap." (Gal.

Compounding the matter is the fact that the so-called Africans that were enslaved were descended from the ancient tribes of Israel. The following is a quote from the Roman politician and historian Cornelius Tacitus (55-120 A.D.). Christian theologians often reference his historical work titled the "Histories." However, when it comes to Tacitus' description of the Judeans' ethnicity, he is largely ignored.

"Since I am coming not to describe the last days of this famous city, it may not seem out of place to recount here its early history. It is said that the Jews are refugees from Crete, who settled on the confines of Libya at the time when Saturn was forcibly deposed by Jupiter. The evidence for this is sought in the name. Ida is a famous mountain in Crete inhabited by the Idaei, whose name has been lengthened into the foreign name Judaie. Others say that in the reign of Isis, the superfluous population of Egypt, under the leadership of Hierosolymus and Juda, discharged itself upon the neighbouring districts, while there are many who think the Jews and Ethiopian stock, driven to migrate by their fear and dislike of King Cepheus. Another tradition mates the Assyrian refugees, who lacking lands of their own, occu-pled a district of Egypt, and later took to building cities of their own and tilling Hebrew territory and the frontier lands of Syria. Yet another version assigns to the Jews illustrious origins as the descendants of the Solymi -- a tribe famous in Homer -- who founded the city and called it Hierosolyma after their own name."

Question: Why is it that neither the European-Americans, nor the African-Hebrew slaves recall the lineage of the enslaved Africans?

Answer: The prophetic utterances of both King David and Moses the Priest of Israel answer this question.

"They have taken crafty counsel against your people and consulted together against your sheltered ones. They have said, 'Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more.'" (Psa. 83:3-4)

"The sword bereaves from the outside, and from within, both young men and maiden, nursing child and the man of grey hairs."

"I said, 'I should blow them away, I should make the remembrance of them to cease from among men. If I did not fear the enemy's taunt, lest their adversaries misunderstand, lest they say, Our hand is high, and Yahweh has not done all this."

Question: How did Yahweh's enemies remove the national name of Israel from the African-Hebrew's memories?

Answer: The eradication of the true national identity of African-Hebrew slaves was systematically achieved through various methods:

Upon capture, the African-Hebrew was immediately subjected to inhumane treatment such as beatings, rape, nakedness, filthy living conditions, and was bound and chained as if an animal.

Prior to arrival in America, captured African-Hebrews were taken to islands in the Caribbean. Adults were separated from children, and often, the most rebellious of the adults were executed in the presence of women and children to instill fear -- thus teaching the African-Hebrew not to rebel against his new masters.

African-Hebrews were forbidden to speak their native tongue. They were also forbidden to practice their native religion -- a mix of Hebrewism and indigenous west-African religions. Any violation of these restrictions was punishable by severe physical and mental torture, and even death.

African-Hebrew slaves were indoctrinated in Christianity as taught by their western-European captors, who misquoted Biblical texts in an effort to convince African-Hebrews to submit to slavery and European dominance. One such verse that is often employed is Eph. 6:5:

"Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and fear, and with sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ." (N.I.V.)

The above statements are brief summaries that explain how the African-Hebrew's national identity and culture were obliterated from the memory of their descendants.

Question: Why did all-mighty Yahweh permit such ruin to destroy His covenant people?

Answer: Scripture provides the answer -- and that is for the blatant violations of the terms stipulated in the Sinaitic Covenant. (See Dt. 4:44-28:68)

Question: How long must "African-Hebrew Israelites" endure chastisement here in America?

Answer: Roughly four-hundred years in a nation whom they have not known, i.e., America. (See Dt. 28:33) This unknown nation would personify Egypt among other things.

"And Yahweh will take you back to Egypt in ships, by the way of which I said to you, you shall never see it again...." (Dt. 28:68)

The Atlantic slave trade was the fulfillment of this prophecy. This enslavement of human beings was done on a scale and scope unrivaled in human history. The reference to Egypt indicates that the conditions and length of chastisement and following redemption will occur in a similar fashion. If one understands the cyclical nature of prophetic scripture, this is easily grasped if you have ears to hear.

"If anyone has an ear, let him hear. He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed by the sword. Here is the perseverance and the faith of the saints." (Rev. 13:9-10)

In other words, what a man or nation does is visited upon them.

Question: Exactly what did Yahweh say concerning the sojourn of His people in a foreign land?

Answer: From Scripture: "Know of a certainty that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them, and they will afflict them four hundred years. And also the nation whom they serve I will judge; afterward they shall come out with great possessions." (Gen. 15:13-14)

Question: How can this strange land that personifies the ancient Egyptian oppression and captivity be identified today?

Answer: It will hold Yahweh's covenant people in oppressive conditions for at least four centuries. It will undoubtedly be the dominant world power --- just as Egypt, Babylon, and Assyria were when they oppressed Israel. And finally, it will personify all of Israel's former oppressors, including Greece and Rome.

Question: How will the redemption and restoration of the nation of Israel be manifested in the last days?

Answer: Yahweh will demonstrate miraculous power. "As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, I will show them wonders. The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall put their hand over their mouth; their ears shall be deaf. They shall lick the dust like a serpent; they shall crawl from their holes like snakes of the earth. They shall be afraid of Yahweh our Elohim, and shall fear because of you." (Micah 7:15-17)

Yahweh has demonstrated a few of these miraculous signs over the past few years. Such evidence can be found in tornados that rage in the mid-west and southern states with ever increasing intensity. Consider the latter day prophecy of Jeremiah: "Behold, the whirlwind of Yahweh goes forth with fury. A continuing whirlwind; it will fall violently on the head of the wicked. The fierce anger of Yahweh will not return until He has done it, and until He has performed the intents of His heart. In latter days you will consider it." (Jer. 30:23-24)

At this point you have to ask yourself, 'Have I considered this devastating phenomenon? Have I considered the fact that these storms are primarily concentrated in regions that enslaved and brutalized millions of so-called Africans? Have I considered the fact that countless Native Americans were slaughtered because of greed and covetousness in southern and mid-western states?' Finally, have you considered that these unprecedented and devastating phenomena are a manifestation of Yahweh's fierce wrath?

Again, Yahweh inspired the prophet Zechariah to write: "Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. For I have bent Judah, My bow, fitted the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons O'Zion, against your sons of Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man. Then Yahweh will be seen over them and His arrow will go forth like lightening. Yahweh Elohim will blow the trumpet, and go with whirlwinds from the south. (Zech. 9:12-14)

Notice that Zechariah also references the whirlwind in connection with Yahweh's retribution. This can be understood as both figurative and literal.

The word used for lightening is from the Hebrew word "baraq." (See, Strong's Concordance of the Bible, 1300). The phonetic pronunciation of this word is "baw-rawk." The phonetic pronunciation is identical to the pronunciation of the President's name, Barack. This is intriguing.

Although President Barack Obama's father was not descended from African-Hebrew slaves of the United States, it does not disqualify him from Hebrew ancestry. The Bible declares that Israel was scattered throughout the African continent.

"From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia My worshippers, the daughters of My dispersed ones, shall bring My offering." (Zeph. 3:10)

This verse of Scripture establishes where his people, Israel, were dispersed. (See Appendix A)

Returning to President Obama, the bible reveals a pattern. On at least three occasions where Yahweh has placed Hebrews at the pinnacle of power in host nations, Joseph, Moses, and Daniel figure prominently in the pattern. The names of these three Hebrew leaders signified the intentions of Yahweh. For example, Joseph means to increase, or He will add. Beginning with the leadership of Joseph, Israel began to increase from 70 souls to over three million.

Moses means drawing out, that is, to rescue (Strong's 4872). Under Moses, a former prince of Egypt, Yahweh rescued His nation from Egyptian bondage.

Daniel's name means "El is judge," or "El is my judge." Yahweh displayed his omnipotent power through Daniel, giving him the ability to interpret dreams and visions. Through this gift, Daniel forecasted the fall and restoration of King Nebuchadnezzar as well as the demise of the king's son Darius. Daniel also prophesied concerning the rise and subsequent destruction (judgment) of all future kingdoms of man and their replacement, the Kingdom of Yahweh.

As demonstrated in the preceding passages, the given name of exiled Hebrews in high-profile positions of foreign governments are of particular significance. The meaning of their names indicates Yahweh's intentions. The given name of our current president -- Barack -- continues this trend. Baraq, or Barack means "lightning" or "flashing sword." The sword more often than not implies war and judgment. It is no coincidence that the United States is currently engaged in the longest military action of her history. The fact that President Barack Obama did not initiate the current military conflict is irrelevant. The fact is that it is Yahweh of hosts (armies) who summons His armies to initiate this end-time global conflict, for instance, Isaiah prophesied end-time events.

Isaiah's prophecy is in connection to the end-time mysterious entity known as Babylon -- "the great city." (Rev. 16:19) Even more specifically, the "woman" of (Rev. 17:7). Notice that the woman is distinguished from the beast that carries her. The ideals and worship practices of the beast are reflected in the woman. Therefore, the woman is the "daughter of Babylon." (Jer. 51:33)

Isaiah prophesied: "I have commanded My sanctified ones; I have also called My mighty ones for My anger -- those who rejoice in My exaltation. The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like that of many people! A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together! Yahweh of hosts musters the army for battle." (Isa. 13:3)

Question: What enemy of America today rejoices in the exaltation of Elohim?

Answer: Muslim extremists who live in the territories of the ancient Medo-Persian empire. The chant "Allah Akbar" is uttered in unison at least five times per day in the Muslim dominated countries of the Mid-east. This word "Allah" is a cognate of the Hebrew word "Elahh" or "Elowahh." It is a general term for God, i.e., Elohim. (Strong's 426, 433) So, the phrase "Allah Akbar" can be translated as "Elohim is Great," a term of exaltation, therefore fulfilling the above prophecy in grand fashion.

Question: Where will Yahweh muster these kingdoms for the "Day of Yahweh?" (Isa. 13:6)

Answer: In the mountains of the great city Babylon.

Question: Where will Yahweh muster these kingdoms for the "Day of Yahweh?"

Answer: In the mountains of the great city Babylon.

"And they gathered them together to a place called Armageddon." (Rev. 16:16)

The word "Armageddon" or "Harmageddon" is the combination of two Hebrew words. "Har" (Strong's 2022) meaning mountain; and "Megiddow" (Strong's 4023) meaning rendezvous. This word in Revelation in the simplest terms means a "mountain rendezvous." The text is not speaking of Mt. Megiddo in Palestine.

Taking all the prophecies of Babylon into account and reading them as a single event, a great deal of relevant information can be gleaned. For instance: How to identify this great city of the last days.

1) "And the woman whom you saw is the great city which reigns over the kings of the earth. (Rev. 17:18)

The United States is the single most powerful country on earth. She possesses more military might than the next three military powers combined. She is also viewed as the leader in world affairs. Additionally, her wealth and high standard of living is without equal.

2) "All the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore; merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of the most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. The fruit that your soul longed for is gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you, and you shall find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, and saying, alas, alas, that great city that was adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! For in one hour such great riches came to nothing."

There can be no doubt about it, the description of the great city Babylon in Revelation 18 is an exact portrait of the United States of America. The number one consumer market in the world. You name it, America imports it in an abundance by any other nation in the world.

The export of goods and services also reveal America's identity.

3) For all nations have drunk of the wind of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury." (Rev. 18:3)

America is the number one exporter of apostate religion -- so-called Christian ministries who advocate non-compliance with Hebraic law and generate billions of dollars world-wide. America leads the world in the consumption and export of pornography. America also leads the world in the sale of military equipment and armaments. In effect, America exports sin and death.

Now that it has been established who the great city mystery Babylon is, it is now time to explain why she has now begun to decline and who the nations are that will destroy her.

WHY IS AMERICA NOW IN DECLINE?

The four-hundred year period for Israel's chastisement is drawing to an end. From 1619 until 2013 marks 394 years of service in a strange land. (Gen. 15:13) Because of the prayers of Yahweh's people.

"In those days and in that time, says Yahweh, The children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; with continual weeping they shall come, and seek Yahweh their Elohim. They shall ask the way to Zion, with their faces toward it, saying, Come and let us join ourselves to Yahweh in a perpetual covenant that will not be forgotten." (Jer. 50:4-5)

The above prophecy was fulfilled on October 19, 1995, on or near the day of atonement at an event dubbed, "The million Man March." Photographic records prove that this was the largest assembly of men ever in the nation's capitol. When Yahweh fulfills His prophetic word, He does it on a massive scale. The fact that people refuse to acknowledge, or fail to perceive Yahweh's mighty hand is of no consequence. What Yahweh has proclaimed will be carried out down to the last detail.

It is important to note that the Muslims such as Mr. Farakahn orient themselves toward the Mid-east when praying, thus fulfilling a portion of Jeremiah's prophecy in verse five: "With their faces toward it." Like I said, Yahweh performs His word down to the last detail. Remember King Solomon's prayer and Yahweh's answer. (See 1 Kings 8:22-9:5)

Here is another prayer taken up by the people of Israel in the last days: "Let the people of Zion say, 'May Babylon be held responsible for the violence done to us!' Let the people of Jerusalem say, 'May Babylon be held responsible for what we have suffered.'" (Jer. 51:35 GNT)

To summarize, in these days Yahweh hears our prayer. Yahweh has said: "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph. I will bring them back, because I have mercy on them. They shall be as though I had not cast them aside; for I am Yahweh their Elohim, and I will hear them" (Zech. 10:6)

Observe that Yahweh does not respond to Israel because of her righteousness. No, Yahweh responds because He is merciful, and it is He who strengthens Israel so that they live according to the statutes of Yahweh.

"And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you, and I will take thy stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; and they shall be My people, and I will be their Elohim. But as for them whose hearts walk after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way upon their own heads, says the Sovereign Yahweh." (Ez. 11:19-20, Bethel Edition)

Before you begin to think Yahweh would never permit a non-believer to initiate such an event, think again. Yahweh has used non-believers in the past to serve His purposes. He has used men as Cyrus, the Persian king. Of King Cyrus Yahweh says the following:

"Who says of Cyrus, He is My shepherd, and he shall perform all My pleasure." (Isa. 44:28) and "...I have named you though you do not know Me." (Isa. 45:4)

To be blunt, Yahweh will use whomever He chooses to fulfill His purpose.

Question: Who are the nations that will eventually attack, plunder, and destroy this nation?

Answer: "Set up a banner in the land. Blow the trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations against her. Call the kingdoms together against her: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Appoint a general against her; cause the horses to come up like the blistering locusts. Prepare again her the nations, with the kings of the Medes, its governors and all its rulers, all the land of his domain." (Jer. 51:27-28)

Question: Who are the Medes?

Answer: Today, the members of the states of the ancient Medo-Persian empire correspond to modern day Iran, Iraq, Syria, Afghanistan, western India, Pakistan, etc. Today, the majority of the population in these areas are of the Islamic faith. Recall what Isaiah said concerning the Medes. They rejoice in the exaltation of El. "Allah Akbar" or "Elahh" (Strong's 426) is great. It does not get any clearer than this.

Question: Who are the Askenazi?

Answer: The Askenazi are to be identified with the Scythians -- a tribe of horse-riding nomads and warriors first traced to central Asia near the border of Siberia and outer Mongolia.

It does not take a rocket scientist to see that the kings of the east of Revelation 16 and the nations mentioned above are one and the same. The text reveals that the adversaries of modern day Babylon are Russia, China, and the combined Islamic states.

"Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared." (Rev. 16:12) The imagery of the Euphrates represents a defensive barrier that is to be overcome, i.e. "dried up."

The same is true today. The Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and particularly the Bering Strait, are no longer obstacles to a determined enemy. Troop carrying aircraft -- such as helicopters -- can traverse the open waters between Siberia and Alaska in a matter of hours. The bible explains that this attack will come from Babylon's farthest northern border.

"Come against her from the farthest border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps of ruins, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left." (Jer. 50:26)

Yahweh gives a clear directive to His people both to the native born, or I should say the biological descendants of Israel as well as those grafted into the house of Israel.

"Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues." (Rev. 18:4)

"Flee from the midst of Babylon, and everyone save his life! Do not be cut off in her iniquity. For this is the time of Yahweh's vengeance; He shall recompense her."

The above Scriptures are commands. They are for the benefit of Yahweh's obedient remnant. Failure to heed these commands will result in enslavement or death.

As a minister of the gospel, to allow Americans to think Yahweh has dismissed her bloody past is a lie that will cost many their lives. Remember Yahweh's command to Ezekiel. If you fail to tell people the truth concerning the iniquity, their blood will be required at your hand.

The writing is on the wall, so to speak. The question is not, Will America fall. The question is, Will the believing remnant of Yahweh's people who live within America's borders be prepared for America's fall?

The curses enumerated in Jeremiah, Isaiah, Habakkuk, etc., are increasing in frequency and intensity. For example, Yahweh said:

"But thus says Yahweh: 'Even the captive of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible be delivered; for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine. And all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh am your Saviour, and your Redeemer, the mighty one of Jacob.'" (Isa. 49:25-26)

Is it any wonder why innocent five and six year old school children are murdered for no apparent reason? In my opinion, children at that age have not yet attained the age of accountability. However, they were affected and impacted by the sins of those who lived centuries before they were born. Yahweh visits the sins of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those that hate him. (See Ex. 20:5-6)

I have not heard one civic leader or member of the clergy utter the word, "REPENT." It seems to me that Americans choose to blame everything and anyone for the nation's troubles -- stubbornly refusing to truly acknowledge and repent for her past, and current, deeds. You know as well as I do, sir, the consequences for refusing to turn to Yahweh in repentance are extreme. What we are witnessing today is a result of stubborn (stiff-necked) rebellion, period. The truth is, people do not want to hear the truth. It is today as it was years ago.

"Who say to the seers 'Do not see,' and to the prophets, 'Do not prophesy to us right things; speak to us smooth things; prophesy deceits. Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the holy one of Israel to cease from before us." (Isa. 30:10-11)

Most of the theologians who I hear or read today bend to the will of their assemblies choosing to be politically correct as opposed to speaking the truth despite the destruction and devastation present in their communities.

America is no different from the empires of the past. In fact, she surpasses them all. This is a nation that puts the worship of idols above all else -- entertainers, sports teams, and perhaps most of all, the celebration of military might. Recall the words of Habakkuk:

"they take up all of them with a hook. They catch them in their nets, and gather them in their dragnet. Therefore they rejoice and are glad. Therefore they sacrifice to their net, and burn incense to their dragnet; because by them their share is sumptuous and their food plentiful." (Hab. 1:15-16)

Is America guilty of such sin? Absolutely -- Independence Day, Veteran's Day, Memorial Day, Armed Forces Day, etc. It is all sacrificing to the net, or military might. This is nothing more than hero worship and Yahweh will not tolerate such behaviour. So, do not blame this mess on your President. He is merely the latest man elected to become Commander-in-Chief of an already sinking ship.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Johnson

APPENDIX A

Quote from the manuscript, "Master of his Majesty's Revels in the Kingdom of Ireland" published in 1679 by John Obilby. He relates:

"Many Jews are scattered over this region; some natives boasting themselves as Abraham's seed, inhabiting both sides of the Niger."

DEAR BROTHER BENJAMIN,

Thank you for sending this rather long dissertation to me, which I have read and am now ready to give an answer to you. You say that people don't want the truth in today's world, and you are so very right. But what about yourself? Do you love truth so much that you can receive constructive criticism? I am not saying that some of what you have written isn't truthful, and powerfully put. But are you willing and able to correct error, where error exists? We will see.

Your premise has caused me to search as deeply and extensively as possible to learn of the things you are imputing. I don't know where you got much of the information that you are presenting, but the proof is found in research, or as we say, "the proof of the pudding is in the eating."

BLACK HEBREWS

In order to establish yourself and all other black people as descendants of the Jews, as black Hebrews, you utilized statements of the pagan Roman historian Tacitus. It is very interesting to me that you seemed to be very adept in your utilization of the Scriptures to prove many of your questions and answers, but you avoided the revelation of the name Judah from the Scriptures and rather went to a pagan Roman unbeliever in order to establish your premise.

The name Judah, as far as Israel is concerned, came into being from Jacob's/Israel's wife Leah. He was her fourth son and she named him thusly because she was praising Yahweh for the fruitfulness of her womb, "And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise Yahweh: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing," Gen. 29:35.

In Hebrew, the name Judah is equivalent to the name Yahweh except for the letter dalet (ד) that is interjected before the final hei (ה), e.g. יהוה = Yahweh; יהודה = Judah).

This had nothing to do with Mount Ida, nor with Crete as Jacob and his wives were dwelling in the Middle-eastern area of Lebanon at the time of Judah's birth. Tacitus' claim is bogus, and any who claim that they are Jews, descended from the Idaeans of Crete is also bogus.

You also referred to Ethiopia several times and the worshippers from south of them. Ethiopia is translated from the Hebrew word Cush (Kuwsh - כוש), who was the firstborn son of Ham. Egypt is an Anglicized-Grecianized word for Mizraim, the second born son of Ham. Libya has been translated from the Hebrew name Phut, who was the third born son of Ham. Finally, Canaan was the fourth born son of Ham according to Gen. 10:6. Ham was the progenitor of the black Africans.

Nimrod, the first great tyrant after the flood, was the son of Cush (Ethiopia, if you will). He is the one who established Babel (Babylon). Whether you want to believe it or not, the woman named Mystery Babylon (Babel = confusion, a founded city of Nimrod, son of Cush) who has the golden cup in her hand (Rev. 17:1-5), is working in concert with the kings of the earth to worship Nimrod (the Osiris of Egypt). In reality, the Hebrew word for cup is Kows (כוס). Notice the spelling of Cush above and the spelling for cup here. The only difference is the samek (ס) rather than the shin (ש). What is in her cup is an intoxicating mixture that causes the people of the earth to commit fornication through the secret worship of Nimrod (Osiris), Semiramis (Isis), and her illegitimate son Horus, the so-called resurrected Osiris.

You should have taken Tacitus' words concerning Jupiter, Saturn, and Isis as a warning that the truth wasn't in this man, as they are false pagan gods.

Israel and Judah were descendants of Noah's son Shem. They would be Semites/Shemites, not Hamites, or Cushites. The Assyrians were descendants of Shem, as were of course the Hebrews.

You speak of the African Hebrew language, but the truth and fact of the matter is that there were 140 different tribes in Libya alone, each with their own language. Nigeria had as many as 371 different tribes, each with their own language. If you had done any extensive traveling you would have discovered that there are so many, many different tribes of people all over the world and all tribes have their own distinctive tongue or language.

If you follow and believe the Scriptures, then you will discover that the Israelites were divided into two different kingdoms, the kingdom of northern Israel, and the kingdom of southern Judah. The northern kingdom fell away to pagan Baal worship and were removed to the north by the Assyrians (2 Ki. 17:5-6). Jeremiah was instructed to go to the north and preach repentance of their backsliding (Jer. 3:12). Of course, we know that they were also scattered to other parts of the world, but the history of their movement was that they were held in northern Assyria, especially around the Caucasus Mountains, for the 390 years that Ezekiel prophesied (Ez. 4:1-5). Caucasus is where we obtain the term "Caucasian."

When Persia was defeated by Alexander in 332-331 BCE, the 390 years had been expended. (722-721 minus 332-331 = 390). The Israelites then swept into what is today Russian Georgia, then west into Europe. Many blended into the Roman Empire, but others continued on into the British Isles and eventually America.

The covetous Europeans that you seem to hate were, in reality, descendants of the ancient Israelites. You were ignorant of this fact, as are also their modern day descendants. The reason being they were cast away and given a bill of divorce so that they lost their identity. Haven't you heard of the lost ten tribes of Israel? Where did their descendants go? Scripture says they were taken north, not south. There are plenty of historians who have traced the journeys of Israel.

If you had studied into the tabernacle in the wilderness you would discover that the principal tribe in the east was Judah. When the Jews were taken into captivity, they were taken to Babylon. Whether you want to believe it or not, they became an integral part of not only Babylon, but also the Medo-Persian Empire. Many remained in Babylon even when others were taken back to the land of Canaan to build the second temple in preparation for the appearing of the Messiah.

Of course, the poor population that remained in the land after Nebuchadnezzar removed the bulk of the population to Babylon, decided to go down into Egypt, which was against Yahweh's own will and command. They did establish a complex in Alexandria, Egypt. But it came to nothing.

After Yahshua's ministry and sacrifice, the latter-day inheritors of Babylon, the Romans, came in and destroyed Jerusalem, and the temple, in effect, taking Yahweh and His wife (Judah) into captivity. Of course, the New Testament reveals that there were Jews that were scattered all around the nations of the Mediterranean because of Acts 2.

Yahshua's ministry, sacrifice, and resurrection changed things. Yahweh no longer was to live in the works of men's hands (the temple), but in the works of His own hands (the people).

In reality, if you truly desire to be a true black Hebrew, then you must REPENT of your sins, and be baptized in only name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. That name is Yahshua the Messiah of Nazereth. As He said, He is the vine, we are the branches. The Apostle Paul also wrote that we must be grafted into Him. I did notice that you avoided referring to Him (Yahshua).

As for the white European's treatment of the original natives, you only focused on the United States. You neglected to focus the rest of the America's such as Mexico, the rest of Central America, South America, and the islands.

It is interesting to note that the indigenous tribes around the Plymouth Rock area were very warlike. In their original numbers, they would have easily overrun the Pilgrims and cast them back into the sea, but there was an outbreak of smallpox that completely decimated the tribes, so they had little or no resistance. Was this divine providence?

Yahweh is the One Who establishes nations and kingdoms, and He is the One Who overthrows and destroys. It was by His providence that America has been established. If America is to be destroyed, then it will be done in His time and in His way. (Which, of course, may be sooner than we think.)

SLAVERY

Your letter reveals a bitterness and hatred that you have for the United States. So much so that you have judged that she must be destroyed. You did present some facts concerning the slave trade, but your facts are quite skewed because of your bias.

Slavery has been an issue ever since Adam and Eve disobeyed their Creator Yahweh. You and I are enslaved to sin, corruption, and death. Don't think that I am seeking to excuse the United States for its history of slavery. I certainly am not!

You charged that the U.S. had been the culprit of the slave trade, guilty of enslaving 12 million African blacks. All facts are available on the internet. I checked up on the facts and here is what I found: It seems that there were, indeed, 11 - 12 million African blacks shipped across the Atlantic for the purpose of enslavement. However, only about 5% of those people were sent to the U.S. the largest number, about 58% went to Brazil. The rest were sent to the Caribbean islands, Central, and South America. Where is your anger, hatred, and bitterness concerning the other 95% who weren't sent to the U.S.?

Do you know who the first U.S. slave master/owner was? The history is that at first, from about 1619 - 1659 the blacks came over as indentured servants, much as did many of the whites. After a 7 year tenure, they were freed. It just so happens that the first man to outright own slaves until either their death or his was a BLACK MAN named Anthony Johnson. Since your name is Benjamin Johnson, do you think it is possible that you are one of his descendants since your own last name is Johnson?

Also, what are your feelings about the over 3,000 free blacks who were slave owners according to the 1860 census? 1860 is just before the Civil War. It wasn't long before the Emancipation Proclamation was made by Lincoln freeing the blacks. The 1860 census reveals that there were 3,952,801 slaves which were owned by 385,000 whites, and a little over 3,000 free blacks.

You opine and condemn the U.S. for its history of slavery, never giving a thought to the fact that the U.S. has already paid the penalty for her sin. You see, the Civil War cost over 3/4 million lives and destroyed families, properties especially in the south where slavery existed. Wasn't the blood and suffering of those people enough?

No one even speaks of the fact that the U.S. gave all blacks an opportunity to return to Africa. They even established a country named Liberia for that purpose. Many did relocate there, but the government that was set up there became exceedingly corrupt very quickly. Many black people continue to gripe and complain about their slave heritage just like you do. You claim that you have been in bondage for 400 years, but the fact is that you were all set free after the Civil War. How many have sought to return to their roots? I have been to Africa. I can tell you that the blacks in the U.S. are on easy street compared to the overall preponderance of many of their forbears who remain their own countries. You may complain about discrimination here in the U.S., but there is such a thing as tribal discrimination in Africa. Wars and conflicts can break out between tribes at the drop of a hat. Do you remember the great slaughter that took place in Rwanda back in the 1990's? I have been there and witnessed the places where there are absolute piles and stacks of human skulls.

What other nation in the world was willing to spill blood, even the blood of other whites, even their own relatives, in order to set black people free from slavery? Many say that the true issue for the Civil War was "states rights", but the southern states wanted the right to own slaves, so slavery was a very important issue of the Civil War.

The 1860 census reveals that there were 27,477,090 free people in the U.S. and the territories, out of which only 385,000 whites, and around 3,000 free blacks were slave owners. So why are you in condemnation of all white people for slavery? Most whites came to the point of intolerance that they were willing to fight, kill, and even die to set slaves free. What do you think of that?

While we are on the subject, let me ask you why well over 90% of modern-day blacks are Democrats? Abraham Lincoln was a Republican. After the Civil War, there was so much resentment among the southern whites that the party of their choice became the Democrat party. This continued until about the time of the Nixon, and the following Reagan administrations. It was the southern Democrats who organized the KKK in order to frighten the blacks into submission. But the Democrats are smarter than the Republicans. The Republicans set them free, and also gave them the power of the vote, but they expected that this would be enough to turn them into Republicans, however, the Democrats just tossed bones, and scraps to them. You know, a little welfare check here and something else there. Therefore, they are still enslaved to the Democrats and being utilized to get their way. Even when things seemingly change, they still don't. The black people are still slaves to the Democrats who established the KKK!

But there is an even darker element to search into. That is the element of the history of Muslim slavery. You spoke so well of, and in an encouraging manner concerning Islam. So let's look into the facts of their history of slavery.

THE ARAB MUSLIM SLAVE TRADE OF AFRICANS, THE UNTOLD STORY

The following is the result of a YouTube program that I took off of the internet:

By John Alembilla Azuma

Interviewer: I must admit that I too among hundreds of millions of educated people, was under the impression that the African slave trade was the sole responsibility of the Christian Europeans, the white race. That is, until I started exploring the subject in greater depth, and especially after reading an incredibly enlightening book called The Legacy of Arab-Islam in Africa by John Alembilla Azumah. My whole perspective and understanding has changed dramatically, and I would like you to tell us more about this subject.

Mr. Azuma: The success of Mohammedan Islam in deceiving, misinforming, deforming and contorting both history and reality for a period of almost 1,400 years has been astounding. That is, until now. The greatest tragedy about this particular subject is that most of the descendants of African slavery, the black people in the Americas and around the world as well as among the African blacks are totally ignorant of the actual facts. I would like to make the following statement and then, prove it.

The worst most inhumane and most diabolical institution of the black African slave trade was initiated, refined, perpetrated, and implemented by the Mohammedan Arabs and later aided and abetted by the black converts to Mohammedan Islam. I have proven that, as usual, the two subcultures, those of denial of facts, and of political correctness will attack us without once disproving a single statement, and or conclusion that we will make.

Slavery was not created by the white races because it has existed throughout human history and has been practiced by every tribe, culture, civilization, racial group, and religion. In fact, the very word slavery has its root in the name Slav based upon Islamic peoples of Europe who were subjugated by other Europeans.

It is not common knowledge that the Arabic word abd is synonymous with the meaning of slave. For example, Abdullah means literally, the slave of Allah, and that in the language of the Arabs, all black people are called abid (plural) for slaves.

While much has been written concerning the trans-Atlantic slave trade, surprisingly little attention has been paid to the Islamic slave trade across the Sahara, the Red Sea, and the Indian Ocean. While the European involvement in the African trans-Atlantic slave trade to the Americas lasted for just over 3 centuries, the Arab involvement in the African slave trade has lasted 14 centuries, and in some parts of the Mohammedan world it is still continuing to this day.

The birth of Mohammedan Islam and its conquests brought about the birth of institutionalized, systematized, and religiously sanctioned slave trade on a massive and global scale. In fact, the Koran allows the taking of slaves as booty or reward for wars of aggression against any and all unbelievers, most of the human population. This has led to a number of so-called holy wars, Jihad in Arabic.

There was and is absolutely nothing holy about these wars which are primarily to plunder, slaughter, rape, subjugate and rob other human beings of their wealth, produce, freedom, and dignity.

Mohammedan, Muslim states, and tribes attack other non-Muslim groups to achieve these objectives. Although Islamic jurisprudence laid down regulations for the treatment of slaves, however, incredible and heinous abuses have occurred throughout the history of Mohammedan Islam.

By the Middle Ages the Arabic word abid was in general use to denote a black slave while the word mamluk was used to denote a white slave. Ibn Haldun 1332-1406 the pre-eminent Islamic Medieval historian and social thinker wrote, "The negro nations are, as a rule, submissive to slavery because they have attributes that are quite similar to dumb animals. It should also be noted that black slaves were castrated, based on the assumption that the blacks had an ungovernable sexual appetite.

When the Fatimid Caliphate came to power in Egypt, they slaughtered all the tens of thousands of black military slaves, and raised an entirely new slave army. Some of these slaves were conscripted into the army at age 10. From Persia, to Egypt, to Morocco, slave armies from 30,000 up to 250,000 became commonplace.

The Islamic slave trade took place across the Sahara Desert, from the coast of the Red Sea, and from East Africa across the Indian Ocean. The trans Sahara trade was conducted along six major slave routes. Just in the 19th century, for which we have more accurate records, 1.2 million slaves were brought across the Sahara to the Middle East, as well as another 450,000 down the Red Sea, and 442,000 from the East African coastal ports. That is a total of 2 million black slaves just in the 1800's. At least 8 million more were calculated to have died before reaching the Muslim slave markets.

A comparison of the Islamic slave trade to the American slave trade reveals some extremely interesting extreme contrasts. While two out of every three slaves shipped across the Atlantic were men, the proportions were reversed in the Islamic slave trade. Two women for every man were enslaved by the Muslims. While the mortality rate of slaves being transported across the Atlantic was as high as ten percent, the percentage of slaves dying in-transit across the Sahara and in the East Africa slave markets was a staggering 80 - 90 percent. While almost all the slaves shipped across the Atlantic were for agriculture work, most of the slaves destined for the Muslim Middle East were for sexual exploitation as concubines in harems or for military service. While many children were born to the slaves in the Americas, the millions of their descendants are citizens in Brazil and the United States of today. Very few of the descendants that ended up in the Middle East survive.

While most slaves who went to the Americas could marry and have families, most of the men slaves destined for the Middle East were castrated, and most of the children born to the women were killed at birth. It is estimated that possibly as many as 11 million Africans were transported across the Atlantic, ninety five percent of which went to South and Central America, mainly to Portuguese, Spanish, and French possessions. Only 5 percent of the slaves ended up in what we call the United States today. However, a minimum of 28 million Africans were enslaved in the Muslim Middle East.

Since at least 80 percent of those captured by Muslim slave traders were calculated to have died before reaching the slave markets, it is believed that the death toll from 1400 years of Arab and Muslim slave trade raids into Africa could have been as high as 112 million.

When added to the number of those sold in the slave markets, the total number of African victims from the trans Sahara, and East African slave trade, could be significantly higher than 140 million people.

What is obscene about this whole subject is the Mohammedan Muslim and Arab culture of denial regarding their complicity in the African slave trade, as well as the ignorance of the black Muslims about the reality of their past and present conditions.

The statistics reported above are based on the log books kept at the African slave ports, ship logs, traveler's reports, eye witness accounts, etc.

Ladies and gentlemen, the facts and reality of Mohammedan Islam's complicity in the slave trade, and their inhuman depravity are infinitely more devastating, more staggering, and more incomprehensible than all the nightmare fictions in the world. (end of article)

So now that you know the facts, will you hold an anger, bitterness, and righteous indignation against Arabic Islam? You spoke so highly about Farrakahn. He and his followers pray to the east, the place of the sunrising, every day, five times a day. They claim that they are praying toward Mecca, just as the Jews excuse themselves in praying toward the east every day because of Jerusalem.

Yahweh condemns people who pray toward the east, " And he brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of Yahweh, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east," Ez. 8:16.

You can say that they aren't worshipping the sun, but there is a great deceiver in this world who deceives people into doing things that they aren't even aware that they are doing. (Remember what the Democrats are doing to the black people?)

ALLAH AKBAR

You commended Islam for their cry "Allah Akbar" saying that Allah is equivalent to the Hebrew Elahh, or Eloah. However, Allah comes from two Arabic words Al and ilah. "Al" is equivalent to the English article "the," or the Hebrew "ha" (which is represented by the letter hei [ה].)

Ilah is equivalent to the Hebrew alah (אלה), which has to do with a curse, oath, or to swear. Islam swears (אלה) to curse (אלה) with death or slavery if one doesn't accept their prophet, and their god.

THE MILLION MAN MARCH

Here is what one man has posted on the internet concerning his participation in the million man march, "It has been nine years since Minister Louis Farrakhan hosted the largest demonstration ever in Washington, D.C., asking one million Black men to take charge of their own fate. Now, Minister Farrakhan has called for the Million Man March, part II, on the 10-year anniversary of the historic event.

The timing couldn't be better. The condition of many Black men in America is still dire, and the re-election of President George Bush has left many Blacks realizing that we must depend on ourselves, not the government, to better our condition.

Since that first march on Oct. 16, 1995, there have been Million Woman, Youth and Family marches, in addition to many other offshoots tapping into the popular name, like the Million Mom March and the recent Million Worker March.

We came to Washington on that fateful day, not to petition government for a civil rights bill or a handout, but to take responsibility for ourselves. The spirit of that day was like nothing I had ever experienced, or have experienced since. I marched down to the National Mall from my college campus with 5,000 other students. When I reached the stage area on the steps of the Capitol and looked out into a sea of Black men, many who stood for at least 10 hours, I held back tears. I knew this day would forever cause a change, if not in the world, certainly in me.

At the conclusion of the march, the throngs of men repeated a pledge given by Minister Farrakhan, to be responsible and active in improving ourselves and our community. After the march, I wrote an article explaining my commitment to take the pledge seriously. Since the march, I got married and have remained so. I have two daughters, and I direct a nonprofit that serves youth coming out of the juvenile justice system, nearly all of them young Black men."

Kudos to this man for the changes made in his life. However, his comments are rather confusing. He says that they embarked on the march not to initiate any civil rights bill, or a government handout, but to take responsibility for themselves. But then he admits that the re-election of President Bush caused the black men to depend upon themselves, not the government, to better their condition.

The stated purpose for the "million man march" was for the purpose to cause black men to become responsible for themselves. But he admits that the situation is still dire. So what will another million march accomplish? Won't it be for the first underlying reason for such a march? Won't it be for the purpose of the government taking responsibility for their actions, since there is no longer a hated Republican president that they knew wouldn't take responsibility for them, but a rather frivolous, supposedly more sympathetic Democratic?

After all, we do know what his minister of about 26 years (Jeremiah Wright) declared. He shouted, "G-ddamn America," more than once, and then declared, "Your chickens are coming home to roost."

JUDGMENT

You are right that America is going to suffer judgment. But she has already paid the price for her participation in slavery in the sacrificial blood of her own men, women, children, homes, lands, families, etc. via the Civil War.

But her sins are mounting up to heaven, and that will be the reason for her demise and destruction. People still proclaim that she was built on the word of the Creator, claiming that her righteous laws came from His own inspired book.

America is in the process of turning her back on her Elohim and Creator. She will certainly suffer the judgment that her forefathers suffered in the land of Israel and Judah.

You admitted that Russia, China, and Islam will be the destroyers of America, and you are right, but you are thinking that they will be justified for doing so. You are ignorant of what was decreed, and just who her real enemies are.

You see, Islam is the religion and faith of Ishmael. Ishmael hated Isaac (father of Jacob/Israel) and would have slain him as Cain slew Abel, if he had been allowed to continue living in Abraham's house. Sarah knew this and had him and his mother (Hagar) thrown out.

The Russians are descendants of the grandson Amalek who feared not Elohim (atheist [Dt. 25:18]). Rome was known as Esau, Edom, Amalek, Seir, and Tyre. She was divided into three cities, Latin Rome, Grecian Constantinople (Roma Nova, or New Rome), and Moscow, Russia (the third Rome). Russia even announces this in their history books.

Esau has maintained a perpetual hatred for Jacob/Israel, "Moreover the word of Yahweh came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, And say unto it, Thus saith Adonai Yahweh; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate. I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am Yahweh. Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end: Therefore, as I live, saith Adonai Yahweh, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: since thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth. And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword. I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am Yahweh. Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yahweh was there: Therefore, as I live, saith Adonai Yahweh, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee. And thou shalt know that I am Adonai Yahweh, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume," Ez. 35:1-12.

Did you notice the two nations? One would be modern-day Judah who has named herself Israel. The other is basically America wherein the overall preponderance of the northern kingdom of Israel abides.

These are the two countries that Russia, China, and Islam have their lustful, hatred for today.

MERCY

Brother, I am concerned for you. You see, you are harboring resentment, bitterness, and hatred in your heart for the land that has given you opportunity (which you refused to appreciate, and have misused and abused). Yahshua declared, "But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance," Mt. 9:13, and 12:7.

He also declared, "Mt 7:2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again," Mt. 7:2. "Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven," Lk. 6:37.

I do hope that with the information provided, your spirit and attitude will be changed. This also goes for others who have been harboring the same bitter feelings. Bitterness, anger, resentment, and an unforgiving attitude can truly cause one to perceive distorted facts.

We encourage you and all others to turn and embrace Yahshua the Messiah, because He is the only One through Whom Yahweh will exhibit His love, mercy, grace, kindness, and favor.

ity, as well as the destruction of our own children.

Yahweh hates these things and so should we. The people of the land of Canaan were practicing these things and Yahweh cast them out, giving the land to Israel, but eventually cast Israel out for the very same practices. The handwriting is on the wall. If we refuse to repent, and that right soon, our end is going to come quickly. It is already on its way.
